The club is believed to have been formed in 1892 as John Smith's FC. It wasn't until 1923 that the Tadcaster Albion AFC name was adopted. In the early years the club played in the local York League. In 1948 Albion won the York League. They continued competing in the York League during the 1950's & 60's.

Tadcaster Albion, in the early days, played home games on the site of the cricket ground on Station Road, before moving to the Ings ground, near to where the present Samuel Smith Brewery Packaging Block now stands.

Changing facilities were in the town, at the rear of the Falcon Public House on Chapel Street, and it was a common Saturday afternoon sight to see nets, corner flags, buckets, oranges, players and officials trekking through the town.

Down the years the club has played in several leagues. In early times, Barkston Ash and later still the Yorkshire and Northern Counties East Leagues.

Football continued on the Ings ground until 1960, when the club moved 100 yards up river to its present home at the Park.

In 1973 the club joined the Yorkshire League Division 3 and were promoted in 1975 & 1977 to reach Division 1, relegation was to follow in 1979 & 1980.

In 1982/83 they became a founding member of the Northern Counties East League, originally in the NCEL Division Two North before league reorganisations led them to Division One in 1991. They rarely finish in the top half of the league in the 1990's and finished bottom in 2001/02 & 2003/04.

At the start of 2004/05, Jim Collis became manager and at this point fortunes on the pitch started to improve dramatically. In his first season, Albion finished 5th in the league, the following year a 3rd place finish meant promotion was missed by one point.

Jimmy Reid took over as manager in 2006, but his time was blighted by off the field problems. An attempted hostile takeover by dissident committee members took a massive amount of money to fight. Then in Nov 2007, an attempted arson attack on the clubhouse caused a lot of damage.

Paul Marshall took over at the start of 2008/09, in his first season he played mostly local players and the team struggled and finished 17th.

In 2009/10, with an influx of a few new key players, Albion won the NCEL Division One title.

In 2010, Rob Northfield, took over as Chairman of Tadcaster Albion (2010) Ltd, and the club became a company limited by guarantee.

Albion finished fourth in their first season in the NCEL Premier Division and won the NCEL President's Cup, beating Farsley AFC 5-1 in the final. That was followed by an 8th place finish in 2011/12 and 6th in 2012/13.

In the 2013/14 season Rob Northfield resigned a few days before the start of the season and i2i Sports Ltd agreed to take effective control of the club and company, with Matthew Gore becoming the new Chairman.

In 2014/2015 the Brewers lead the NCEL Premier for most of the season, but a poor run of games in March led to them finally finishing in third.

An excellent run in the FA Vase saw them make history by making it through to the Quarter Final of the FA Vase where they drew a record breaking crowd of 1,307, but were narrowly beaten by Highworth Town.

At the end of the season, the club opted not to renew their contract with manager Paul Marshall, and two weeks later former Harrogate Railway boss Billy Miller was unveiled as the club's new manager.

In 2015/2016 the Brewers lead the NCEL Premier for most of the season once again, but this time they held their nerve and finished Champions with a 2-1 home win over Armthorpe Welfare.

They also made it to the League Cup Final, but were beaten in a thrilling 3-2 game against Cleethorpes Town.

In 2016/2017 the Brewers will start their first ever season in the Evo-Stik First Division North. With a mix of old and new players Billy is back in his old stomping ground and his experience and knowledge of this division will come in handy to help TAD have a great first season.

Directors' NOTES

A warm welcome to our opponents Leeds United who have travelled here tonight for this much-anticipated pre-season friendly.

Here at i2i Sports, we've been working quite closely with Leeds United over recent months, so we're delighted to be able to invite them down to TAFC. Playing against a team of professionals will be a great test for our players. Several members of our squad have been through the Leeds United ranks, so it's sure to make for a lively atmosphere.

Two of us (Matt and James) are life long Leeds United fans and as season ticket holders we have followed the club all over the country and abroad. To be able to welcome Leeds United to Tadcaster Albion for the second season running is a huge occasion for us, so we'd like to thank everyone at the club for making it possible.

This time last year we had played two friendlies against Selby and FC Halifax Town and had lost them both, this season we are two games in again but this time with two wins coming at Hemsworth & Pickering.

A big thank you to the away support we have received so far and I am sure you will cheer on the lads tonight in our first pre-season home game.

A big thank you also goes to all the help we have received getting the ground ready for tonight's game. We are going through some big changes here at Tad, working hard to repair the flood damage and continuing to move the club forward with a new stand which is currently under construction and is planned to be ready by the end of this week.

Remember also to come on down to the i2i stadium on Friday night for Tadcaster Albion vs Prem XI in a charity match raising money for the flood fund and the new stand. Such legends as Andy Johnson, David Prutton, Nicky Shorey, David Dunn, Craig Beattie, Geoff Horsfield will all be gracing the Taddy turf with their skills.

Once again, enjoy the game and thanks for your continued support.

Matt Gore, James Gore & Kent Mayall

Manager's NOTES

Good evening everyone and a very warm welcome back to the i2i Stadium for the start of the forthcoming season.

It gives me great pleasure to be able to welcome Leeds United to kick start our campaign on home soil. I have a long standing association with Mark Jackson and would personally like to extend a very warm welcome to Mark, the players and the staff. We hope they enjoy their stay and have a safe journey home after the game. The pitch is in excellent condition after a summer of hard work by Dave Wakefield and I am sure both teams will find the playing surface outstanding.

After the extension of last season's campaign due to the cup final, we allowed the dust to settle before setting about building the type of squad we would need for this seasons campaign, the clubs first ever in the Evo-Stik Division One North.

We held a series of discussions with all the current players about their futures, their plans and their ambition for the future. Some of these discussions ran on late into the night but we all felt it was important each player was given the opportunity to speak individually. After numerous conversations / phone calls we identified areas we would need to strengthen on the back of some players deciding it was their turn to move on. We wish every player that has chosen to move every success wherever they end up. We also looked to identify areas we could improve. I am pleased to say the squad is beginning to take shape and we should be able to finalise it over the coming weeks.

As we embark on our first season at Step 4 we are under no illusion about the amount of hard work required to compete at this level of football. There are some very good footballing sides operating within the league, teams that have an understanding of how to go about their business. Teams that are well organised, robust and rigid. We will need to be patient, supportive and hard working if we are to establish ourselves quickly within the league. I have emphasized to the players how hard we will need to work out of possession as well as in possession, I am sure they will rise to the challenge.

Finally it goes without saying there are a number of people behind the scenes working hard to support the side on the pitch. The owners' infectious passion, desire and ambition drive the whole thing on. The local volunteers who are working numerous hours behind the scenes to support the football club moving forward. But above all else you the fans, who make the noise, pay the money and support the team. This is going to be a great first season, we may have to adapt to losing a little more than we have been use to. But, I am sure we have a squad more than capable of holding its own, let the journey continue...

Yours in Sport, The Management #tadallover

“to inspire players to fulfil their potential”

Match PREVIEW

We are delighted to confirm that we will be playing Leeds United in a pre-season friendly Tuesday night (19th July) at the i2i stadium (7:30pm kick-off).

This time last year saw the Mighty Whites bring several then first-teamers Marco Silvestri, Liam Cooper, Souleymane Doukara, Mirco Antenucci and Billy Sharp to Tadcaster.

Last season's fixture drew in an outstanding gate of over 1,011 people and we are hoping for the same again this time round.

Like last year, Leeds have confirmed it will be an U21's side that makes the short trip to Tad but as aforementioned, there were several first-team players that incidentally turned out and we are hopeful of this being the case once again.

Head 2 HEAD

A strong Leeds United side featuring several first team players visited the i2i Stadium to play out a 0-3 away win and a useful pre-season workout.

In another evening kick-off United had another fixture on the same day when they visited Tadcaster Albion at the i2i Stadium in Ings Lane, Tadcaster. With Uwe Rosler in charge at York, Rob Kelly and Richard Harris took charge of the team.

There was a sprinkling of potential first teamers but for the main part it was the Professional Development Under-Twenty-One team. The starting line up was: Marco Silvestri; Lewie Coyle, Ross Killock, Liam Cooper, Tyler Denton; Calvin Phillips, Casper Sloth, Souleymane Doukara; Lewis Walters, Mirco Antenucci, Billy Sharp. Mirco Antenucci opened the scoring after just five minutes when he netted with a left-foot shot. Leeds were never in danger of losing but they squandered several easy chances as well as hitting the woodwork on at least three occasions, but they went to the half-time break with just a 1-0 lead. Casper Sloth almost doubled the lead when he hit the crossbar in the fifteenth minute. Lewis Walters went close as he shot over the bar as Leeds took charge of the first half-hour.

With ten minutes to the break, Tadcaster had a good chance to equalise but Joe Thornton put a free-kick over the bar from a good position. Billy Sharp should have increased the United lead, but after rounding the keeper he shot over the bar. The Leeds striker did get the ball in the net, moments later, but was denied by the offside flag.

Lewis Walters became the third United player to hit the woodwork in the half, when he hit a post. Souleymane Doukara also had a chance to double the Leeds lead, but was denied by the Tadcaster goalkeeper just on half-time and despite dominating the game Leeds went to the break with the slenderest of advantages. Billy Sharp doubled United's lead very early in the second half, after Liam Cooper had beaten Danny Stimpson in the air and headed goalwards for the striker to round the keeper and finish from close range.

Soon afterwards the Leeds striker almost doubled his tally but his effort was kicked off the line. Mirco Antenucci twice went close to increasing his goal tally and Billy Sharp should have scored but was denied by a point-blank save by Gary Stevens in the Tadcaster goal. After Pete Lawrie had replaced Gary Stevens in the Tadcaster goal, he was quickly in the action as he denied Souleymane Doukara. Lewie Coyle was the next to test him but Leeds made it three with a goal from Souleymane Doukara in the final ten minutes as he stroked the ball past the Tadcaster substitute goalkeeper.

Marco Silvestri was forced into a save by Calum Ward late in the game, in which he had been a virtual spectator. For United Jake Skelton replaced Ross Killock, Ronaldo Vieira came on for Tyler Denton and Luke Parkin took over from Lewis Walters in the second half, while Eric Grimes, Robbie McDaid, Tom Lyman, Frank Mulhern and Eoghan Stokes remained unused as United won 3-0.

Tadcaster Albion lined up: Gary Stevens; Tom Claisse, George Bissett, Andy Milne, Danny Stimpson, Liam Ormsby; George Conway, Jimmy Beadle, Dave Brown, Joe Thornton, Adam Baker. Pete Lawrie replaced Gary Stevens in goal at the hour mark. Calum Ward, Josh Barrett, Danny Gray and Tom Gore were the Tadcaster Albion other substitutes.

A potted history of Leeds United over the years...

Leeds United came into being in 1919 following the demise of the old Leeds City Football Club and joined the Midland League, playing their first game in that competition in November 1919.

Through the decades - 1920s It was on May 31, 1920 that Leeds United were elected to the Football League, polling 31 votes to step into the Second Division along with Cardiff City, who had polled 23 votes.

United's first ever fixture in the Second Division was against Port Vale, who, ironically, were the club who had taken over Leeds City's fixtures after their expulsion. United lost that opening fixture 2-0 and that was the start of a difficult league baptism for them.

Arthur Fairclough, a successful manager with Barnsley, had been appointed manager in succession to Dick Ray, who led the club in the Midland League, and they finished the 1920-21 season in 14th place in the Second Division.

But Fairclough needed only four seasons to take United into the First Division, and they went up as Champion with 54 points - three more than Bury who were runners-up. But it was a struggle in the top flight and after three seasons there, United were relegated.

United experienced an up and down existence in the 1920s and 30s. They went back into Division One 1928-29 but lasted only three seasons before making the drop but after just one season they were back in the top flight in 1932-33 and stayed there until the outbreak of war in 1939.

After the war, following one season in Division One, United had a nine-season run in Division Two, during which time the great John Charles made his debut, before being promoted in 1956-57. They were back down again in 1960-61.

1972 FA Cup Winners Success in cup competitions also eluded United and it was not until Don Revie took over in 1961 that real success came their way. He built a team around Billy Bremner and Jack Charlton that was feared both at home and abroad in the late 1960s and early 1970s.

He guided his side to two top-flight championships, the Second Division title, an FA Cup triumph in the competition's Centenary year, a League Cup Final win, a Charity Shield victory and a couple of European trophy successes before leaving in 1974 to manage England.

In the early 1980s, however, United's 17-year stay in the top division came to an end. They were relegated to Division Two and languished there for eight years, old boys Eddie Gray and Billy Bremner both taking up the reins at the club, before Howard Wilkinson brought United back to the top flight in 1990 as Second Division champions.

He also guided them to the First Division Championship in 1992 and to the League Cup final four years later, which Aston Villa won. The following season he was succeeded by George Graham and two years later Graham left for Tottenham and United appointed David O'Leary to succeed him.

The Irishman did a remarkable job in a relatively short period as the 19th manager since United's formation. It was during his tenure that exciting young players from the Academy were given a real chance to shine, Jonathan Woodgate, Harry Kewell, Stephen McPhail, Ian Harte and Alan Smith all coming through to make an impact.

During O'Leary's tenure as manager United made their mark again in the UEFA Cup and also qualified for the Champions League, holding their own with such European giants as Barcelona, AC Milan, Lazio, Anderlecht and Deportivo La Coruna to reach the semi-finals where they lost out to Valencia.

Leeds spent big in the transfer market but O'Leary's reign came to an abrupt end in 2002 when he was succeeded by Terry Venables. United were hitting financial problems on a large scale at that time and Venables didn't last long before United turned to Peter Reid on a temporary basis.

Although he earned a full contract after saving United's Premier League status, Eddie Gray replaced him on a temporary basis, but after less than a season in charge, he gave way for Kevin Blackwell to become manager in 2003.

Blackwell guided United through some stormy waters but United made a poor start to the 2006-2007 season he was sacked and replaced by Dennis Wise in October 2006. Wise took over the reins, but was unable to halt a first ever slide into the third tier of the English game.

The new manager re-shuffled his pack in January 2007 and while March and early April gave hope of a great escape relegation was confirmed on April 28 when Ipswich Town's Alan Lee scored a late leveller to deny United the win needed to keep hopes alive until the final day.

Within six days, the club slipped into administration and relegation was confirmed by the mandatory 10-point deduction imposed on clubs who enter administration.

Dennis Wise A summer of torment began at Elland Road. After gaining creditor approval to bring the club out of administration the new owners (Leeds United 2007 Ltd) - led by chairman Ken Bates - were almost thwarted when the Inland Revenue objected to the CVA.

The club's administrators KMPG put the club for sale for a second time, and once again, Leeds United 2007 were successful in buying the club.

However, without an approved CVA - the Inland Revenue's objection nullified the CVA - the Football League insisted upon on 15-point sanction before returning the "Golden Share" (Membership of the League). That proposal was supported by the majority of Football League chairmen, who voted in favour of a points sanction on the basis that the club emerged from administration without a valid CVA, despite the fact a valid CVA was unachievable.

And so it was that the club began the 2007/08 season 15 points adrift at the foot of League One. In a remarkable campaign, Dennis Wise's men won their opening seven games and went on to hit top spot, albeit briefly, on Boxing Day.

Wise left the club - favouring a role at Newcastle United - and former club captain Gary McAllister returned to take over the reins. McAllister slowly got the season back on track and after beating Carlisle United in the Play-Off semi-finals, he became the first former captain to lead the manager out at Wembley in a competitive game when United took on Doncaster Rovers in the Play-Off final.

That game ended in disappointment with United losing 1-0 and missing out on what would have been the most remarkable promotion in the game.

With a first pre-season behind him as United manager, his charges quickly rose to second in the table. September saw the team record six straight victories, and with no sign of a Play-Off 'hangover', United were among the pace-setters in the division.

But Leeds failed to live up to that early season form and McAllister paid the price for a run of five successive defeats - including a 1-0 FA Cup second round reverse at non-league Histon - when he parted company with the club in December.

McAllister was replaced by former Blackpool manager Simon Grayson, who proceeded to lead the club on a tremendous unbeaten streak in the second half of the season. After losing at Hereford in February - when fans vented their frustrations after seemingly seeing their side reach a new low - United embarked on a run of 11 games without defeat and only lost one of the final 14 league games.

Striker Jermaine Beckford became the first Leeds striker for over 30 years to score 30 goals in a season, and the campaign eventually ended with Play-Off heartache yet again after Millwall progressed 2-1 on aggregate in the semi-final, following a 1-1 draw at Elland Road.

Undeterred, Grayson and his squad recovered from the set-back to start the 2009/10 season with a club record eight straight wins in all competitions, and a 13-game unbeaten start to the league season gave United a platform in the top two. By Christmas, Leeds were nine points clear in the promotion places, and when 2010 started with an FA Cup third round win at Manchester United - the club's first win at Old Trafford for 29 years - the season was shaping up to be a memorable one.

But, despite gaining a 2-2 draw at Tottenham in the fourth round of the FA Cup, the league form took a dive. United were also knocked out of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy Area Final on penalties at Carlisle and when Swindon won at Elland Road in April, Leeds slipped out of the promotion spots for the first time in eight months.

But Grayson's men summoned up one final push and promotion back to the Championship was secured on the final afternoon of the season, following a 2-1 win against Bristol Rovers in front of a full-house at Elland Road.

That success secured a return to football's second tier and Grayson's side went on to establish the highest league finish since 2006 after enjoying an impressive season back in the Championship.

The season was a roller-coaster with some great performances against the likes of Millwall, Coventry, Burnley, and eventual league winners QPR being mingled in with some heavy defeats. Preston became the first side ever to score six in a league game at Elland Road and goals conceded was the biggest frustration.

But Leeds did score 81 league goals - four players scored more than 10 for the first time in over 20 years - and Grayson's men would have secured a top-six finish at the first time of asking had it not been for a disappointing end to the season. In the end, United missed out on the final day despite beating newly crowned champions QPR at Loftus Road.

Grayson became the club's longest serving manager since O'Leary during the 2011/12 season, but there was a parting of the ways in January 2012 with the team sitting outside of the Play-Off places. Neil Warnock was appointed as the club's 27th manager at the end of February as the club went on to finish in mid-table in the Championship.

Hopes were high in summer 2012 as the experienced Warnock prepared to take charge of his first full season at the club. An unbeaten pre-season - which involved a positive trip to Cornwall - brought a sense of optimism, while a host of new faces - including the likes of Jason Pearce, Paul Green, Luke Varney, Lee Peltier and Rodolph Austin - gave United a new look as sights were set on mounting a promotion push.

Things started on the right foot, beating recently-relegated Wolves 1-0 on the opening day thanks to Luciano Becchio's diving header, but the team struggled to find any kind of consistency in the midst of off-field issues once again. Entering the Christmas period, five wins out of six and GFH Capital's protracted takeover of the club helped recover some of the optimism that had started to wane.

However, just four wins from 15 games since the turn of the year saw United slide worryingly down the table and Warnock left his post following a 2-1 defeat at home to Derby County in April. Neil Redfearn again stepped in for the 2-1 loss at Charlton before former Reading boss Brian McDermott was appointed and helped avert any lingering fears of relegation with three wins from the final five games.

The likeable McDermott was an instant hit with the United faithful, even more so after his gesture of handing a 50 euro note to a travelling supporter during the pre-season tour of Slovenia. McDermott made four summer signings, bringing Matt Smith, Luke Murphy, Noel Hunt and Scott Wootton to the club and hopes were fairly high once again. Murphy, the club's first seven-figure signing for eight years, made a dream start to his career with a stoppage-time winner in the opening day win over Brighton in front of a sold out Elland Road crowd.

Things appeared to be ticking over relatively well heading into the Christmas period as United found themselves around the top six. But an FA Cup defeat against League Two side Rochdale followed by a 6-0 thrashing by Sheffield Wednesday the weekend after set alarm bells ringing.

January 2014 ended in turbulent fashion, with the club appearing to be for sale once again and Cagliari owner Massimo Cellino said to be on the verge of a deal. McDermott was absent for the 5-1 win over Huddersfield following reports he had been sacked the night before, but he returned to take training the following Monday and remained in charge for the rest of the season, finishing in 15th.

Following a successful appeal against the Football League's ruling of failing their Owners and Directors test, Cellino completed his takeover of the club in April 2014 as Eleonora Sport Limited purchased 75 per cent of the club's shares.

Summer 2014 saw the departure of McDermott and the appointment of former Forest Green boss David Hockaday as the club's head coach. 15 new players were brought in, including many from Italian football as the squad became almost unrecognisable from the previous year.

Hockaday's tenure was cut short following a 4-1 defeat away to Watford at the end of August and Redfearn stepped back in as caretaker and helped return the team to winning ways, collecting ten points from a possible 12. Slovenian coach Darko Milanic arrived from Austrian side Sturm Graz at the end of September, but was dismissed after six winless games and Redfearn took charge on a permanent basis from the start of November.

Neil Redfearn was replaced by former Brentford and Wigan manager Uwe Rosler. Uwe Rosler was named the new head coach at Leeds on a two-year contract.

Redfearn was replaced by Uwe Rosler as Head Coach in the summer of 2015, however Rosler was replaced by Head Coach Steve Evans after only a few months in the role.

On 2 June 2016 Garry Monk was appointed as the new head coach.

Six new additions have already been made since Monk's appointment at the start of June, with Marcus Antonsson, Kyle Bartley, Hadi Sacko, Rob Green, Matt Grimes and Kemar Roofe all hoping to feature in United colours for the first time in Wednesday evening's pre-season friendly with Shelbourne.

The former Swansea City manager has used the opening weeks of pre-season to assess his squad and welcome new faces into the group, and Monk remains keen to boost his options ahead of the new Sky Bet Championship campaign kicking-off in just under a month's time.

"The squad's a very young squad," he said. "But I think you can see where we're at - the sense of the club and the direction that we want to go in. We want to build something.

"Yes, we need to build short-term, but we want to build longer-term as well.
