

Avonmouth Old Boys RFC

Since 1897

Mini/Junior Player Code of Conduct

The motto of Avonmouth Old Boys RFC is.

'THE GAME FOR THE GAMES SAKE'

As a player and representative of AOBRFC this looks and feels like:

- Being thankful, polite and respectful to everybody involved in your game of rugby, this includes: the opposition, your parents/carers, coaches from both sides and match officials.
- Playing to the best of your ability, working selflessly for the good of the team.
- Enjoying the game and having fun, whatever the score.
- Including and encouraging new players, understanding each player has a part to play in the team.
- Winning with dignity; losing with grace.
- Following the laws and regulations of the game, playing fair and accepting decisions made by match officials.
- Playing to win but not at all costs.
- Being proud to play for your team and represent Avonmouth Old Boys RFC, remembering that you represent the strong values of the club.
- Respecting the club house and not abusing the facilities (home and away) and show consideration for everyone else.
- Speaking out when anyone is subject to inappropriate words or actions.
