 - All allegations or suspicions of abuse, neglect, harm and poor practice will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly, fairly and appropriately.
 - Working in partnership with other organisations, statutory agencies, parents, carers, children and young people is essential for the welfare of children and young people.
 - Children have a right to expect support, and personal and social development delivered by an appropriately recruited, vetted and managed in relation to their participation in rugby union, whether they are playing, volunteering or officiating in the community or professional areas of the sport.
5. Clitheroe RUFC recognises that all children have the right to participate in sport in a safe, positive and enjoyable environment whilst at the same time being protected from abuse, neglect, and harm and poor practice. Clitheroe RUFC recognises that this is the responsibility of everyone involved, in whatever capacity, at the club.
6. Clitheroe RUFC will implement and comply with the RFU Code of Conduct and the Codes of Conduct for Coaches, Spectators and Officials as appropriate. Clitheroe RUFC will ensure its spectators, parents, members and officials are all aware of and have accepted the club Photographic Policy as set out in the club welcome pack and on the website.

14. No player, whether male or female, may play adult rugby (or train with adults) until he or she has reached their 18th birthday unless they fully comply with the relevant RFU regulations. These are Regulation 2 of the Schools and Youth Regulations on pages 425 and 426 and Game Regulation 7.3 on page 206 of the 2009/10 RFU Handbook. They are also on the RFU's website. These regulations set out the circumstances/exceptions in which such under age players may play in the adult game. Essentially the regulations cover:
 - Players who are 17 years old can play/train with seniors 'provided they have been assessed as capable of playing with adults'
 - Agreement must be obtained from CRUFC's Coaching Co-ordinator and the Head Coach
 - These players need written parental permission in order to play / train.
 - To play in the front row, players must be 18.

The above applies to senior training as well as matches. Age group coaches should not send their players to train with the seniors if the above does not apply including during pre-season.

Signed
