2015 NEWSLETTER: WEEK 6

CBH rout Cheadle for 58

FINDING the going tough on their promotion to the ECB Premier League, bottom club Cheadle were dismissed for 58 and lost at home by 10 wickets to Chester Boughton Hall.

Only Elliott Bullock (26) reached double figures for Cheadle against fine bowling, notably from Ian Linwood 3-20, new recruit Ash Davis, 3-22 and the evergreen Alex Kegg, 2-1. Chester went on to win inside 13 overs at 61-0, Warren Goodwin, 32 and Mark Rowland 25.

Chester nevertheless remain 19 points behind impressive leaders Toft who recorded their fifth win by four wickets down the road at Macclesfield. Macc went for 189, Jack Ward 44 and Toft made it with 10 overs to spare on 191-6 - after struggling at 132-6 - Rob Jones 50, Jack Goode 31, Toby Drummond 30, the latter partners both not out.

Nantwich slip to third place after being held by Bowdon's tail-enders at Whitehouse Lane. Skipper Ray Doyle top-scored with an unbeaten 109 in the Dabbers' 282-6 (after being 22-3), helped by Chris Simpson 82, while Chris Ashling took 3-81. After 47 from Carl Hey, a dogged knock of 39 by Mark Leathley saw Bowdon close on 200-9, Ollie Griffiths 3-46, Jimmy Warrington 3-51.

The season's lowest score was posted by Grappenhall, all out for 47 at Bramhall, who registered their first victory. Simon Wilkinson claimed 4-10 and Rupes Kitzinger 3-16. Before tea, Danny Lamb top-scored with 82 not out in Bramhall's 204-6, Sam Guest 3-60.

Unbeaten Alderley Edge were comfortable six wickets victors at Hyde, the champions losing their third game, by six wickets. Jason Whittaker, 39 and Rob Brierley, 32 helped Hyde to a below par 172, Sean Sturrock 3-31, Richard Wilkinson 3-39. Alderley countered with a comfortable 173-4, Richard Wilkinson 43, Alan Day 42.

Neston posted their first victory, by two wickets at Parkgate, to extend Marple's poor start. Sam Harbinson, 62, top scored in Marple's modest 151, Matty Stewart 5-47 and Chris Finegan 3-22. With Elliott Young taking 4-49, Neston were in trouble before Sam Cole hit an unbeaten 33. Earlier, openers Simon Stokes and Mark Garrett had paved the way with 34 apiece.

Weaverham catch up

BACK to form Weaverham cut Sale's First Division lead to three points with a 152 runs victory at Middlewich, where Kevin Waterhouse had a good day. He top scored with 96 in Weaverham's massive 310-6, aided by Wilden Cornwall, 87 and James Lewis, 77, with Len Du Toit taking 4-92. Middlewich were all out for 159, skipper Nick Gill 44, Waterhouse 4-30, Cornwall 3-29. Sale were foiled by Tattenhall tail-enders and had to settle for 11 draw points. Sale posted 153, Ian Dixon 44 and Tatters held out at 130-9, teenager Henry Dobson a polished 39.

Timperley also recovered after losing to Christleton last week, posting a 104 runs win at Oxton after running up 221-7, Dan Cooper 68, Shaiq Choudhry 5-45. Oxton were bowled out for 117, Jack White 6-59

Left-arm paceman Guy Emmett claimed a fine 6-28 as Oulton Park routed neighbours Davenham for 81 to win at Butcher's Stile. Cheadle Hulme recorded their first win, by four wickets at home to Urmston, Ifti Naseer taking 5-18 and scoring 60.

Christleton's star Kiwi Mitch Renwick topped his 136 not out at Timperley the previous week with a magnificent, unbeaten 162 which almost earned his side victory over Didsbury at Little Heath. Didsbury totalled 251-4, Phil Critchley 72, Nick Anderson 68, Simon Normanton 63, to which Christleton countered with 239-6. Renwick, who must relish batting fortnightly on such a featherbed, is currently playing for Hampshire 2nd. Didsbury spinner Jonny Fawcett (2-99) played his last league game before moving south, where he will join Richmond in the Middlesex League.

Six in row for Bolly

BOLLINGTON notched their sixth Division 2 win by nine wickets at Irby led by South African all-rounder Sabir Mallie with 87 and 3-45.

Warrington's fifth victory was by five wickets at Upton, Aussie Nathan Green 4-64 and 35 not out.

Mobberley won at Bredbury thanks to a remarkable spell of 7-48 by Abdul Aqeel.

Northwich were 88 runs victors at Congleton, Simon Stoneley 61, Chamindu Ishanka 5-89 - that's 17 wickets in three games for the Sri Lankan - Sam Shepherd 5-46.

Widnes won by four wickets at Stockport, Sean Moore 60 not out, Rajiv Singh 4-18 on debut.

Alvanley stay bottom after a losing draw at home to Brooklands, for whom Jack Bagshaw scored 71 and Rav Singh took 4-43.

FORTIES AGAIN HIT BY RAIN

RAIN again spoiled the Over Forties' programme on Wednesday last week with nine out of 15 scheduled games called off because of unfit pitches following overnight and morning rain.

Individual honours in the six games played – three of them in the Wirral - went to B. Hunter with a hat-trick in his 4-11 return which helped Caldy beat neighbours Upton by three wickets.

Clubs are reminded that they must notify cancelled matches otherwise fines will be imposed.

CENTRAL DIVISION RESULTS

Cheshire in T20 innovation at CBH

CHESTER Boughton Hall will host Cheshire, Northumberland, Cumberland and Staffordshire when the new regional Dukes T20 competition is staged at Filkins Lane on Sunday.

Cheshire take on Northumberland – whom they recently trounced in the Unicorns knock out at Hyde - starting at 10 a.m., with Cumberland playing Staffordshire at 1 p.m., The two winners then meet in the final at 4 p.m., one team going on to the national finals day at Banbury on Sunday, July 12. Strangely, the teams will be playing red ball cricket and wearing whites. Admission is free and the bar will be open all day.

Cheshire will be captained by the home club's Lee Dixon, fresh from his county one-day record 161 against the Geordies at Hyde two weeks ago. Remainder of the 14-strong squad is: Mark Rowland (wicket-keeper), Ash Davis, Warren Goodwin, Harry Killoran, Ollie Law, Rick Moore (all CBH), Nick Anderson (Didsbury), James Duffy, Danny Berry, Khalid Sawas (Hyde), Jimmy Lomas, Rob Jones (Toft), Danny Lamb (Bramhall).

VETS' CRICKET

CHESHIRE have made a losing start to their National Over 60s championship campaign.

After going down to a fine Yorkshire team at Neston, they were beaten by three wickets by Derbyshire at Alvaston & Boulton on Wednesday last week. Scores: Cheshire 163 (Colin Ridler 57, Steve Yates 35, Phil Catterall 28); Derbyshire 164-7 (Mark Brandrick 95no, John Edwards 3-27). Cheshire next meet Cumberland at Alderley Edge on Wednesday this week (1.30 p.m.).

THE County Over 60s have had two games cancelled, then beat Shropshire at Neston and lost by seven wickets to Yorkshire at Leeds. They meet Lincolnshire at Appleby Frodingham on Tuesday this week (1.30 p.m.).

Over 60s 2nd XI meet Somerset on Thursday this week at neutral Malvern Links CC, Worcester.

Alistair Davies' Umpires Quiz

WEEK 5 POSER: The striker moves down the pitch in an attempt to hit the ball on the full. He misses the ball and it is gathered by the wicket-keeper in front of the wicket and brought back onto the stumps with the striker still out of his ground. There is an appeal – is the batsman out?

ANSWER: The 'keeper is not permitted to take the ball in front of the wicket where there has been no previous contact with it. Therefore, the striker's end umpire should call No ball and the striker is not out. Laws 40.3; 24.8; 24.15

WEEK 6 POSER: The wicket-keeper gathers a delivery which is called Wide and removes the bails with the striker out of his ground, but not attempting a run. There is an appeal. Note that it was the striker's end umpire who had called No ball for three fielders standing behind the popping crease on the leg side. What should be the correct decision?

Saying goodbye to 'H'

GRAPPENHALL President until his recent death, Harry Bramhall will be given a private family funeral on Tuesday this week.

His many friends plan to gather later at the clubhouse in Broad Lane from 7 p.m. to remember the man who earned legendary status throughout the League for his genial nature and warm understanding of the game.

Club chairman Dave Nicholson says everyone who would like to pay tribute to 'H' will be welcome, but advises them to contact him first at 075127 461 939 for catering purposes.

O Another former Grappenhall man who has died is John Dewes, aged 88. Warrington-born, John played for the club in the early post-war years before making his name for Cambridge University, Middlesex and England. He was in the England team which played Australia in the 1948 Test at the Oval when Don Bradman was bowled for a duck by Eric Hollies. .
