AOB:

WB asked TM if he would make a poster for a bowling competition. TM agreed.

Action: TM WB stated that member Alan Mills has passed away. A discussion about a wreath or donation decided that we would wait until the family have made a decision.

WB stated that the bowling committee had had a meeting with the Greenkeeper regarding the state of the Bowling Green. It was agreed that a verti-cutter cassette was needed for the Dennis machine. A Spiking machine was needed. This needs doing monthly. GB to look into the costs for these. Action: GB

WB stated that more rubber is needed for around the green. The bowling committee have offered to donate £500 towards the rubber and the equipment for Leon.

MO asked if the Bar Manager could obtain some England POS for the Euros. This was agreed.

GB asked if the chip & pin charges could be cheaper. TM to look into this. Action: TM DB gave a short update on the junior cricket. All the juniors are enjoying the games, even though they haven't won one yet. Their techniques are getting better with every game.

TM stated that the community fun day on 29th August has to be moved because the league have moved one of the cancelled matches to that date. DB suggested having it on a Sunday. TM to look for a date. Action: TM
