

Registration Guide 2023-2024

Registration

Before you can pay your membership online, you will need to join the club website (register) – some of you may have already done this especially if you have children in the M&J section.

Please can you ensure you complete as many of the data fields as possible

New members

Registering is a very quick and easy process and has the added benefit that once registered, we will have all the emergency contact details for you. We recommend doing this through a browser and not on the pitchero app (due to the way the app works). Here is a little user guide, if you need help
