

OWHC Professional Junior Training Masterclass

Sunday 25 February 2018, 10am – 12midday

Dear all,

We are delighted to announce that Old Williamsonian Hockey Club (OWHC) is hosting a FREE “Junior Training Masterclass” which will take place on Sunday 25 February, 10am – 12midday at SJWMS.

In partnership with one of our sponsors, Affinity Eco Clean, OWHC is pleased to welcome professional players; Ellie Watton, England and Great Britain International and Ben Boon, England Indoor International, to lead this masterclass. Available to anyone aged 5 – 22, this is a fantastic opportunity for all OWHC junior members, family and friends and it is absolutely FREE.

England and Great Britain International Ellie Watton, has been a professional hockey player since her debut in 2013. With over seventy caps to her name and a Commonwealth Games silver medal, Ellie is a skilled and dangerous forward and a current member of the Great Britain squad. As well as being an experienced player, Ellie has coached extensively and formerly worked as a teacher at Oakham School.

England Indoor International and Reading HC striker Ben Boon is part of the Great Britain Elite Development Programme having represented England at Under 21 level and playing Premier League hockey for five seasons. Ben has extensive coaching experience at club and school level, working in London, Reading and Bournemouth. He is enthusiastic, energetic and specialises in forward play, drag flicking and 1v1 skills.

For spectators, tea, coffee and bacon rolls will be available in the Club House from 11am - 12.30pm.

Please email: Oldwilliamsonians@hotmail.com to confirm your interest in training with the elite.

Kind regards,

Neil Thompson
OWHC Chairman
