‘The Spirit of Rugby in Leek’

A history of Leek Rugby Union Football Club

Written and researched by Beverly Needham

On 4th May, 1923, fourteen men within the Leek and District met at the Maude Institute to form a Rugby Club. The struggle for success was a long and slow process, but amazingly, the decisions of these founding members have been well preserved within the minute books of Leek Rugby Club, providing a fascinating insight to those early years.

Discover your club's history dating from 1923 to one of the greatest moments in 2014, when Leek RUFC played in the RFU intermediate cup final at Twickenham Stadium. With a collection of over 140 photographs, a selection of minutes, match reports, and fond memories of past players and club officials, ‘The Spirit of Rugby in Leek’ will take you on a journey through the decades.
