Seaford RFC Have Twickenham In Their Sights

Seaford Battle Through Five Rounds in RFU National Cup Competition to Reach Regional Final

On Saturday, March 15, 2014: Seaford 1st XV will be travelling to Battersea Ironsides, Wandsworth London to compete in the regional (London & SE) FINAL of the National RFU Junior Vase Cup Competition. Seaford have come through 5 rounds of cup competition that has seen over 60 clubs from Essex, Kent, Surrey & Sussex compete for the regional title. The competition goes national after the regional finalists from London, South West, Midlands and North have been decided, with the SE & SW playing on Easter Saturday for the right to play in the National final at RFU HQ, Twickenham on May 3.

The club has hired two 49 seat coaches which have been filled by the team and supporters for the trip up tomorrow. The coaches will be leaving the club house on The Esplanade, Seaford at 11:00, after having a full English breakfast with all the team and supporters. We will arrive at Battersea around 12:45 with Kick Off on their Garratt Green pitch on Burntwood Lane, Earlsfield.

The club is also celebrating its 75th Season playing rugby in Sussex and being affiliated to the RFU..
