PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

DOUGIE SKELTON

Good afternoon and welcome to Sandhill Lane where we entertain our friends from Old Brodleians on what promises to be a very exciting weekend of rugby union. It has been four weeks since our last home game. In that time Selby 1st XV has struggled to find a winning formula. Today will be a tough test with Selby seeking to avenge the defeat at the hands of Brodleians earlier in the season. I must mention Max Wotton playing his 1st XV home debut.

Like Selby, Brodleians are proud to show that their present crop of first team players is predominantly a product of their junior and youth sections. We therefore have a youth section "curtain raiser" where Selby 14's will play Brods 14's and I welcome all the players, parents and supporters of both youth teams to the Saturday rugby experience. I hope they will stay on to watch the senior game and the televised Six Nations international involving "Engerland" and Wales. International KO 16.45.

I am delighted to report that a number of our lady rugby players have been selected for County Honours. Isla Ramsey, Danni Moore, Grace Naylor and Maya Stephens have been selected to Yorkshire Ladies under 15's while Erin Bradley, Emily Hills, Louise Dawson and Anna King have been selected to Yorkshire Ladies under 18's, with Erin and Louise earning places in the Sale Sharks Academy Programme. In the lads section

Will Storey has been selected to YRFU under 15's squad to play Lancashire on 15th March 2020. Also, Ollie Uren for the u17s and Tom Nicholson and Max Wotton for the u18s. Great achievement by all and I hope all those selected enjoy every part of that experience. Pictures next page.

Our officials today are Liam Taylor 1st XV and Ian Hilton 3rd XV also refereeing Selby vs Old Brods. Please remember that the men in the middle do what they do for the love of the game. We are always very grateful to them and strive to look after them and make their refereeing experience at Selby a good one.

My thanks to Rainbow IT Services as today's Sponsors and I hope they and their guests have a great afternoon.

Good luck to our 2nd XV and 4th XV playing away at Old Rishworthians and Leodiensians respectively.

As always I would like to wish the best of luck to all our Selby teams from First XV to Fourths XV, U7's to U16s, Colts and our ladies teams taking part in rugby competitions this weekend. I trust that all players and all spectators will conduct themselves in a fitting manner around the pitch and in the ground that is at all times in keeping with the best traditions of Rugby Union to ensure that all games at Sandhill Lane can be enjoyed by everybody.

Have fun and enjoy your rugby at Selby RUFC.

Today's Curtain Raiser Selby u14s -v- Old Brodleians u14s

Today at Selby RUFC we welcome the boys under 14s teams from Selby and Old Brodleians as a curtain raiser to the 1st XV match. Perhaps, one day, they will return and remember this match as senior players - we do hope so.

Nikki Keep, manager to the team, writes:

Under 14's boys have continued to grow and develop over the season with players new and old, forming a strong bond and producing some excellent rugby at home and away. This season (so far) has seen eight wins and five defeats.

Selby U14's appears to be bucking the trend, with numbers growing whilst other local clubs are struggling to put out a team. New coaches this year (Ryan and Jordan) are supporting Will Stoker and his team of coaches to encourage the boys to be resilient young men. Sean Lyons, Ryan Hudson, Geoff Thornton along with Jordan Barton, regularly have 28 -30 boys at midweek training with a total squad of 37.

Having managed to get to the third round of the Yorkshire cup they were comprehensively defeated by a strong Beverley side, but undeterred came back after the Christmas break to convincingly beat both Wetherby and Moortown.

All the boys have gained confidence and skills over this season with improvements in stamina and tactical play coming from some seriously tough training sessions. A strong cohort have gone on to trials for the ERDPP.

With high numbers comes the challenge of getting all the boys game time, trying to split up a tight team of boys into two teams is difficult and this will be an area we will work more on next season.

The boys are due to go on tour to Matlock later in March, another rite of passage in their rugby journey, which we hope they will continue with and who knows maybe there are a couple of first team players just waiting in the wings.

READ SCHOOL

DRAX

Your Educational Adventure starts here!

Read School nestles in 17 acres of beautiful grounds in the tranquil rural location of Drax village. This provides the backdrop for a multitude of academic, sporting and outdoor adventures inside and outside of the classroom, including the running of a successful market garden, a thriving Combined Cadet Force, Duke of Edinburgh programme and active equestrian teams in both Junior and Senior school.

Our Foundation years in Pre-School and Reception at Read School are the confidence-building basis upon which our excellent education for pupils aged 3-18 is built.

Small class sizes and generous staff to pupil ratios allow teachers to spend valuable time with each child, providing a wealth of opportunities for children to flourish and grow in confidence in every aspect of life at the school. This is demonstrated, not only in the children's academic and extra-curricular achievements but also in the excellent quality of our drama productions and musical events, the breath-taking art work, the results and performances on the sports pitch and in fact everything that our determined children do.

By joining the Read School in the Junior or Senior School (day or boarding) we believe that your child will join a stimulating, happy, secure and inclusive community where every child is valued and where learning is caring, inspiring and fun.

Please come and visit us to see for yourself, either at our upcoming Open Morning on 6th May or by arranging a private visit.

The best possible start

Adina are not your usual house developer. It is our belief that family homes should give families the space to live and grow. We ensure that all of our homes are built on larger than average plots, so the inside and outside space is not just practical but enjoyable. Our mission is to build sustainable and energy efficient future proofed homes.

Report by Ian Marlow

After a superb second half performance Selby edged to a nail-biting but fully deserved win against Old Brodleians to not only ease their own relegation fears by ending the visitor's six match winning streak, but to record their first league victory over them since 2002.

Playing with a stiff first half breeze Selby did themselves no favours by almost completely ignoring it, opting to play expansively by running the ball out of deep defence rather than utilising the (seemingly) more obvious option of long clearance kicks – and while their ambition was admirable, and some of the play sparkling, the net result was an abundance of good field positions for Brodleians to attack from when the ball was eventually turned over. And with Brodleians showing why they were long unbeaten with an early try following some excellent driving and handling from forwards and backs alike, as well as mullering Selby in the early scrums, the signs were looking ominous for the Swans.

Fortunately for the numerous and distinctly tweedish-looking home supporters Selby had put their tackling boots on, so despite further heavy and consistent Brodleians pressure the Selby defence held firm and the Old Boys were unable to add anything to their early score – although they may have come to regret not going for goal with a couple of kickable penalty opportunities. When Selby did manage to gain good field position where it mattered, following some great work by the Wetherby Connection (no, not a popular beat combo but Liam Hogan and Tom Edwards), Stephen Clark was on hand to deliver the coup-de-grace by driving over from short range to leave the half time score at 7-5 in Selby's favour.

With Selby now having to play into the elements a two point lead looked very flimsy but the Swans then produced the best 30 minutes of rugby of the season, with all players playing their full part, to dominate possession through a rejuvenated scrum and some excellent and controlled handling. The half time introduction from long-term injury of Josh Cruise was a heartening sight and he played a pivotal role at fly-half in directing play as Selby worked their way up to the Brodleians line – where the pack wasted no time in driving the Brodleians eight back from a five yard scrum for Captain Charlie Cicero to touch down. A further penalty from Cruise after more concerted Selby pressure extended the lead to 15-5, with the Swans now looking like worthy victors with ten minutes to go.

Unfortunately for Selby nerves, but enthralling to all spectators, Brodleians then showed their class to come fighting back for the remainder of the match to set up camp on the Selby line. More great Selby defence kept them out until eventually the pressure told and Brodleians forced their way over to close the gap to 15-12 with only minutes remaining. Further Brodleians pressure right at the death won a penalty in front of the sticks – but rather than going for the almost guaranteed draw, they kicked into the corner for a winner-takes-all showdown on the Selby line. Several Brodleians forward drives were frantically knocked downed inches from the line before blessed relief, and elation, finally came as Selby forced a knock-on for the final whistle and a superb win.

Selby now face runaway league leaders Moortown away on Saturday, and while getting anything from the match will be a very hard ask, if they can replicate their second half performance then who knows what may happen?
