

EDINBURGH
NORTHERN RFC

The thrill of victory. The pain of defeat. The away day trips in the back of the team bus. The banter after the game. Plus a camaraderie forged from the season's many thrilling highs and gut-wrenching lows. These are things shared by teams up and down every country, in every corner of the world. It's this shared passion and love of your chosen sport that inspires us to constantly challenge sporting boundaries, to help give you and your team the winning edge, by providing you with teamwear that can stand up to the toughest of extremes.

EVEREST JERSEY

This man mountain of a jersey helped South Africa power to World Champion status in 2007. The iconic neckline roars 'Canterbury' and will have opponents shaking at the first scrum. Give your team the kit they deserve.

FIT STYLES: INTERNATIONAL

Introduced for the Rugby World Cup 2007, the international design incorporates fabric to offer a tight fitting jersey that moves and flexes with the body. A comfortable yet high performance jersey, designed to be worn tight to the body.

Please note the "junior international" is a slim fit but not tight.

COLLAR STYLES: INTERNATIONAL

Designed for the Rugby World Cup 2007, this innovative design is hard wearing and durable. Available in twill or self fabric options, the international collar is applicable to raglan sleeve designs only. Cover stitching around neck insert and down raglan seam. Select stitch colour from sublimation colours.

BINDING & SLEEVES:

Everest sublimite jerseys are only available in short sleeves.

All Everest jerseys include binding on the sleeves & body hem to retain shape and comfort during wear.

CLASSIC SUBLIMATION JERSEY

The most bespoke jersey out there. Rugby players come in all shapes and sizes, and so should your kit. Create a unique jersey from endless designs including the latest Loop 21 neckline and stand out on the pitch. Be individual, play as one.

FIT STYLES:

STANDARD - Traditional fit, comfortable for all sizes and perfect for competition, training or leisure. Available in a traditional set-in sleeve or raglan sleeve finish. A durable and comfortable jersey.

SLIM - Initially designed for a number of International 7's teams, this slimmer fitting jersey has developed rapidly within the game and offers a streamlined fit to enhance tackle evasion.

COLLAR STYLES:

SPORTS - Originally developed for the Rugby World Cup 2003, the sports collar offers an update to the traditional collar style. The twill material, or self-fabric option for sublimation, are combined with a loop neck for durability and performance.

INTERNATIONAL - Designed for the Rugby World Cup 2007, this innovative design is hard wearing and durable. Available in twill or self fabric options, the international collar is applicable to raglan sleeve designs only. Cover stitching around neck insert and down raglan seam. Select stitch colour from sublimation colours.

STUB - Created more than 30 years ago and still popular today, the stub collar offers a streamline look with performance qualities whilst incorporating the loop neck. Available in twill or self fabric.

LOOP 21 - New neck construction for 2011 offers superior fit, comfort and greatest strength yet. "LOOP 21" is protected by a registered design of Canterbury Ltd (Registered Design No. 001691049-001)

SLEEVES:

Sublimated jerseys are available in both long and short sleeves. Long sleeves have a ribbed cuff.
