kickoff

with bryan freeman

Good afternoon everyone, and welcome to our opponents Cobham their players and officials, also today's three match officials for this Division One encounter.

Both Knaphill and Cobham are currently in the lower regions of the League table, in twelve and thirteenth places respectively. They are separated by just one point, Cobham having played eight games with eight points whilst Knaphill have played three games more, with nine points from 11 games. When the two Clubs met last season, Cobham had a 1-0 win at their venue, whilst Knaphill had a 3-1 win at Redding Way, with goals from Alex Lumley, Ricky Hogsden and Woody Cardona.

Earlier this week, Knaphill went out of the Division One Challenge Cup losing 3-0 to Warlingham. Two goals in the first 16 minutes, meant Knaphill had made their task harder to get back into the game from very early on. The home side's failure to clear danger cost them dearly in that opening spell.

Former Knappers player Woody Cardona had a simple tap in for the opener on 11 minutes from six yards, and five minutes later Roy Newman made it 2-0 with another close range effort. In between those goals, Ricky went close to an equaliser for Knaphill in the 14th minute, only to see his shot hit the post.

Other chances came and went in the second period, and the visitors struck their third goal a minute into stoppage time. So a second exit in League Cup competition in successive weeks, following the 3-2 defeat by Epsom & Ewell the previous Tuesday which had shown more promise, but goals from Perry Coles and Craig Knowles, were not quite enough on the night.

Back on League duty, Knaphill suffered a 5-2 defeat away to Frimley Green last Saturday, their seventh successive defeat (four in the league and three in Cup competition), Craig Knowles and Ricky Hogsden the Knaphill scorers.

Our last game here was a But despite a battling performance which got the home side level at 2-2 with goals from Perry Coles and Craig Knowles, Knaphill lost 3-2.

Thirty four goals have now been conceded in the last eight games from League and Cup competition. Knaphill have scored twelve goals in that period, but alas when you concede so many, scoring goals become very little consolation when there is nothing to show for it, especially when League points are concerned. It is now crucial that results need to produce a turn around sooner than later.

Knaphill Reserves moved up to second place in their Division last Saturday following the 4-2 home win over Sheerwater Reserves. The visitors took an early lead, but after 19 minutes Jonny Philips equalised for Knaphill, and the lead was increased as they showed their supremacy when George Pearce drove a free kick into the far corner of goal in the 27th minute. Five minutes later it was 3-1, Lennie Harding the scorer.

Both teams had chances in the second half, each scoring a goal. Perry Coles cross to Josh Hughes gave the latter an easy task of tapping the ball home to make it 4-1, before Sheerwater got their second soon after. A well deserved victory for Knaphill who have now won four and drawn three of their eight league games this season. Today the Reserves are away to Farnham Town.

Back to the first team, and next Saturday 22nd October sees a quick return to Redding Way for Warlingham following their recent Cup win, as Knaphill will be wanting to gain some needy points in the League fixture, kick-off is 3pm. The last game of the month comes away at league newcomers South Kilburn on Saturday 29th October, kick-off 3pm.

Meanwhile.....Enjoy this afternoon's game.....

with nick croshaw

After an unsteady start to their season, the U18's managed by Gary Taylor and Mark Dawber, have settled into winning ways. The season started with former manager Dougie Ford having to withdraw at late notice due to work commitments and Reserve Team Assistant Manager stepping into his shoes at very short notice.

The season began with a trip to Bracknell Town where Knaphill struck early on with a goal from Jack Bailey-Caulfield settled early nerves; however Knaphill's defensive frailty reared its ugly head. In a mad 10 minute spell, The Knappers concede two sloppy goals and despite having the majority of the play thereafter, an equaliser was not forthcoming. Their second game was away to Thatcham Town, and on a cold and misty evening a poor performance saw two early gilt-edged chances go begging and mistakes at the back and in midfield let Thatcham go 4-0 up by the hour mark. A smart lob from Josh Hughes was the only consolation from a disappointing match.

More agony followed with a trip to Ascot United and after dominating the first half and taking a 2-1 lead courtesy of a Josh Hughes thunderbolt and Harry Maynard's superb dribble and shot, the same defensive errors crept back in. The final scoreline of 2-5 didn't reflect on the majority of the play, but the score-line does not lie. The season turned on 45 crazy seconds at Sandhurst Town on another misty evening at Bottom Meadow. With Knaphill 1-2 down with 4 minutes injury time on the clock and the result being reported as such, a long ball from goalkeeper Craig Taylor found Haluna Masembe on the half way line, the quick striker shrugged off his defender and surged forward to hit a rasping shot from the edge of the box for a deserved equaliser.

From the Sandhurst kick-off, Liam Welsh thundered into a tackle springing the ball to Haluna's feet, he sprinted forward, steadied himself and slotted the ball past the advancing keeper for the winner. Josh Hughes scored the opening Knaphill goal in the first half.

With this boost in confidence the team travelled to Alton Town for the fifth consecutive away game and dominated throughout, Josh Hughes provided the winner just before the half hour mark, but two performances stand out. Firstly Craig Taylor who had an inspired game in goal saving from point-blank range on a number of occasions and Man-of-the-Match, Johnny Phillips, who was immense in the centre of midfield cutting out the Alton attacking options and providing the catalyst for many of the Knaphill's counter-attacks.

It is gratifying to see a number of the youth team already making their mark in adult football with the 1st and Reserve teams already this season and this is the reason for Knaphill to be justifiably proud of their youngsters.

HOME OF THE KNAPPERS ON THE NET

Knaphill Reserves 4 Sheerwater Reserves 2

After a hard fought victory away to Farleigh last week we were missing a few regular players for our home game against local rivals Sheerwater but were happy that we completed important back to back wins. The strength of our youth set up was very important with five U18's in the squad and they played a key part in the 4-2 victory.

Sheerwater went ahead after some indifferent defending but we struck back after a well worked corner, Perry Coles pinpoint delivery and Johnny Philips header. Lennie Harding then smashed a free kick into the corner to make it 2-1. Ten minutes before half time another well delivered cross from the dangerous Coles saw George Pearce arrive late into the box to finish well. The second half started well for us with Josh Hughes finding room between defenders, again from a Coles delivery, to make it 4-1. Sheerwater kept going and were rewarded with a long range effort but we kept control for a good victory that puts us into second place in the league.

For the last few weeks we have been in the fortunate position to have experience and talented younger players to give us an ideal balance.

Of course there is a big difference to reserves and first team football. Adie Wilson and I will work carefully to promote players at the right time to ensure they are equipped to add value and importantly that they enjoy their football still. One of our aims is to build a reserve side that all players have the potential to move up, I believe we now have that.

Jimmy Edwick, our recent signing from Hanworth Villa, has come in performed well in goal, giving us a winning mentality on and off the pitch. In front of him Sean Harvey and Mark Harding are building a very solid partnership in the middle of our defence and Saturday we had the luxury of playing George Pearce, ex Chertsey Town, alongside the highly rated youth player Johnny Philips in midfield. With all these players six foot plus it was no surprise that we scored twice against Sheerwater from corners and always looked a threat from set pieces. Full back Lloyd Greenfield and youth lad Ross Greaney both added to a solid defensive unit.

In midfield Lennie Harding has been very consistent, scoring important goals and he adds quality to complement his fully committed approach. Perry Coles, another new signing this season, is a player blessed with genuine natural ability and was involved in all four goals in our last game. Up front Shane Cummins gives us pace and aggression. As he develops he will be an even greater threat and should be able to push onto the next level. His strike partner on Saturday was 16 year old Josh Hughes who has scored four goals in the last five youth games and two goals in two games in the reserves. Another player with pace and aggression who at 16 years old is physically able to compete at senior level.

Lloyd Pearman, Callum Slattery, Sean Smith all youth players gave us strong options on the bench and while we have to balance their youth football to ensure we don't overplay them we have the luxury of players that have, this season, already travelled to difficult places like Alton Town and come away with great victories.

Knaphill Ladies travelled to Bexhill-on-Sea for their first ever appearance in the Womens FA Cup and despite losing 2-1 it was a memorable day out.

With the weather being so hot and sunny, every man and his dog was heading for the South Coast, which meant heavy traffic and late arrivals at the ground. Despite the referee delaying the kick off by 15 minutes to give our girls a chance to warm up, the Ladies looked a bit sluggish from the outset with Bexhill being first to the ball and closing us down well when we had possession.

It was no surprise when half ways through the first half Bexhill took a deserved lead following a defensive mix up and were soon 2-0 up when a speculative cross drifted over Jenna Morris into the net. However, this seemed to spark Knaphill into life and they got a goal back just before half time. A great ball from Kim Davis found Emma Lawrence wide right, Emma took the ball along the goal line then passed it back towards the penalty spot for Sarah Hale to crash the ball into the net for Knaphill Ladies first ever FA Cup goal.

The score remained 2-1 at half time and the Ladies made two substitutions and reverted to last season's formation of three at the back and a five-man midfield. For the remainder of the match Knaphill kept possession well and had all the pressure, but just couldn't find the equalizer and Bexhill ran out 2-1 winners.

Despite losing there were a lot of good performances from all over the pitch, particularly in the 2nd half. Abi Ribton-Turner had her best performance this season and Abbey Garner picked up her first ever yellow card for a shirt pull in the first half. It was good to welcome back captain Leanne Sands to the centre of the defence after missing the start of the season through injury.
