

Berlin Football Academy

Appropriate / Inappropriate Conduct Policy

All members of staff and volunteers are expected to report any breaches of this policy to contact@berlinfa.com under the whistle-blowing procedure or, if necessary, under child protection procedures.

Staff and volunteers who breach this code of behaviour may be subject to Berlin FA's disciplinary procedures. Any breach of the code involving a volunteer or member of staff from another agency may result in them being asked to leave Berlin Football Academy.

When working with children and young people for Berlin Football Academy all staff and volunteers are acting in a position of trust. It is important that staff and volunteers are aware that they may be seen as role models by children and young people, and must act in an appropriate manner at all times.

When working with children and young people, it is important to:

- operate within Berlin FA's principles and guidance and any specific procedures;
- follow the Berlin FA's child protection policy and e-safety policy and procedures at all times;
- listen to and respect children at all times;
- avoid favouritism;
- treat children and young people fairly and without prejudice or discrimination;
- value and take children's contributions seriously, actively involving children and young people in planning activities wherever possible;
- ensure any contact with children and young people is appropriate and in relation to the work of the project;
- always ensure language is appropriate and not offensive or discriminatory;
- follow the e-safety policy and report any breaches;
- always ensure equipment is used safely and for its intended purpose;
- provide examples of good conduct you wish children and young people to follow;
- challenge unacceptable behaviour and report all allegations/suspensions of abuse;
- ensure that whenever possible, there is more than one adult present during activities with children and young people or if this isn't possible, that you are within sight or hearing of other adults;
- be close to where others are working. If a child specifically asks for or needs some private time with you, ensure other staff should know where you and the child are;

- respect a young person's right to personal privacy;
- encourage young people and adults to feel comfortable and caring enough to point out attitudes or behaviour they do not like;
- recognise that special caution is required when you are discussing sensitive issues with children or young people.

You must not:

- patronise or treat children and young people as if they are silly;
- allow allegations to go unreported;
- develop inappropriate relationships such as contact with children and young people that is not a part of the work of Berlin Football Academy or agreed with the manager or leader;
- conduct a sexual relationship with a child or young person or indulge in any form of sexual contact with a child or young person. Any such behaviour between an adult member of staff or volunteer and a child or young person using the services of Berlin Football Academy represents a serious breach of trust on the part of the staff member or volunteer and is not acceptable under any circumstances;
- let children and young people have your personal contact details (mobile number or address);
- make sarcastic, insensitive, derogatory or sexually suggestive comments or gestures to or in front of children and young people;
- act in a way that can be perceived as threatening or intrusive;
- make inappropriate promises to children and young people, particularly in relation to confidentiality;
- jump to conclusions about others without checking facts;
- either exaggerate or trivialise child abuse issues;
- rely on your reputation or that of the organisation to protect you.

The role of parents

Berlin Football Academy welcomes and encourages parental involvement. Parents and caregivers are regarded as valuable partners in promoting positive behaviour and will be involved as appropriate.

In the event of their child becoming the subject of behavior sanctions, parents/caregivers will be informed and involved.

Refrain from any behaviour that constitutes sexual harassment, where sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual comments and sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, or conduct of a sexual nature.

Types of behaviour that constitute sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- Sexist jokes;
- Sexual violence;
- Display of sexually offensive material;
- Sexually degrading words used to describe a person;
- Inquiries or comments about a person's sex life;
- Unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, requests, invitations or propositions;
- Inappropriate sexual touching, advances, suggestions or requests;
- Unwanted physical contact including, but not limited to, touching, petting, pinching, or kissing;
- Physical or sexual assault.
