

DUNFERMLINE WOMEN XV HEAD COACH VACANCY

Dunfermline Women XV, established in 2019, completed their first competitive league season in Scottish Rugby's Tennent's Midlands/East league.

To move them on to the next stage in their development, they're now looking for an empowering, engaging and enthusiastic head coach.

Key Responsibilities

- Produce a season development plan in conjunction with all coaches
- Coach and lead the senior women's section with focus on growth and development
- Attend, plan and lead training sessions and matches with input from other coaches
- Develop individual training programmes in line with individual development targets
- Report to senior management on progress against season plans and individual player development progress
- Agree selection policy with senior management
- Communicate personally to all squad members on selection decisions
- Provide feedback to players on training and playing performances in line with individual development targets
- Assist where possible to increase playing numbers across the women's section
- Have an active role pitch side for home and away games

Required Qualifications

- UKCC Level 2 (club support for level 3) or new SRU equivalent
- Senior coaching experience or relevant to role

This a volunteer role with expenses.

The club will invest in the right individual in terms of support towards professional development, if you want to improve as a coach then the club will provide that opportunity.
