Child Welfare and Photography (for full details of our child protection policy and code of conduct please refer to the website www.kingsrugby.org.uk) Our principal concern at Kings is the welfare of all young members participating in club activities. We ask all parents, whilst at the club or spectating at club events, to act with a sense of responsibility towards the young players. This includes being positive and supportive rather than critical of players during matches, and not pressurising a child to play if he or she does not wish to. Parents should also ensure that their child is appropriately dressed for all weather conditions. Gum shields and correct footwear are a necessity to ensure the safety of your child and others. Parents/guardians should be aware that photographic images of their children may be taken during training sessions and matches by coaches or other parents. These images may be used in the local press or in club publicity the RFU publishes guidelines on this matter; if you have any concerns, require further information, or object to your child being photographed, please contact the Club's Child Safeguarding Officer.

Medical Consent

Should the necessity arise, I agree to the Coach or First Aider giving consent on my behalf for urgent medical treatment to be administered in my absence.
