Old Bedians International Ticket Policy

Applicants must be current paying members of either the Junior or Senior rugby section.
(includes pay-and-play members from the 2014/15 season)

The closing date for ticket applications to be processed will be set by the club and applications must be submitted prior to this date. Applications made after the closing date will only be offered returned tickets, subject to availability.

Any dispute over the way that international tickets are allocated should be referred to the Chairman for a final and binding decision.

The committee reserves the right to withhold some of the allocation to pass on to sponsors or RFU-approved hospitality companies for the benefit of the club.

All adult tickets are subject to a £10 booking fee and juniors £5, unless otherwise stated.

Car Park Pass:

Only available on request and subject to availability (which are very limited) at a cost of £50 per car, please note minibus and coach passes are also available at an additional cost.

Applications for a Car Park Pass must be made at the same time as your ticket application and on being awarded your car park pass and ticket(s) you have a strict 14 days to pay the remaining balance.

If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact the International Ticket Secretary:
