

An Evening with Geoff Miller, OBE

hosted by BBC and Sky presenter Tony Lockwood

Wednesday 11th October 2017

at the Kings Chapel, to the rear of the Kings Arms Hotel, 30 High Street, Old Amersham, HP7 0DJ

Bar opens ~ 7-00pm      Dinner ~ 8-00pm      Bar
Closes ~ 11-30pm

As one of the most respected cricketers of his generation, Geoff has been there and done it all.

Playing with, and against, many of the most talented players in history, he is never short of an amusing story, especially having shared a room with Sir Ian Botham on many overseas tours!

With his brilliant timing and dry, self-deprecating Northern humour, Geoff is simply one of the best.

This quality saw him voted Sporting Speaker of the year in both 2013 and 2014 and Cricket Speaker of the year for the past 4 years !!!

Geoff played for Derbyshire, Essex and England from 1976 to 1994, and was an England selector, and ultimately Chairman of Selectors, from 2008 to 2013. He became President of Derbyshire CCC in March 2014.

This promises to be a great evening of entertainment, with a 2 course dinner, and concluding with a Q&A session. Dress code is smart casual. However, tickets are limited, so please book early.

Tickets are £55 each
