

The Good Spectator Code

SPECTATORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO:

- Act as positive role models to all young players.
- Be familiar with, and abide by, the RFU Guidance in relation to verbal and emotional abuse.
- Respect the rugby club with regard to spectator behaviour.

SPECTATORS SHOULD:

- Remember both teams play sport for their enjoyment not yours.
- Acknowledge good individual and team performance from both sides irrespective of the team for whom they play.
- Respect match officials' decisions. Remember - they are volunteers providing an opportunity for youngsters to play rugby.
- Never verbally abuse any players, match officials, fellow spectators or coaches. Such behaviour can create a negative environment for young players and their behaviour will often reflect this.
- Acknowledge effort and good performance rather than the 'win at all costs' ethic.
- Verbally encourage all players in a positive way. If you do want to shout make sure it is 'for', not 'at' the players.
- Encourage all players irrespective of their ability - never ridicule any individual player, regardless of the team for whom they play.
