

IPSWICH RFC

Club Coaching Coordinator

What you can do for your club:

- Make sure each team has adequate coaching staff to grow and develop
- Promote coach education and development
- Proactively identify new prospective coaches and ensure they have the support they need to succeed

The role:

- Identify, recruit and develop coaches ensuring sufficient and appropriate coaching staff are assigned to each team (including illness cover)
- Establish the needs of club coaches and signpost them to relevant courses and continuing personal development
- Take a long term view that allows coaches to develop with a team over time
- Act as a point of contact for the RFU, Constituent Bodies and club coaches
- Ensure your contact details are registered and updated on the RFU Game Management System
- Understand and publicise the RFU coaching courses and local coaching events
- Encourage the sharing and spread of best practice between coaches at different levels
- Design and lead the implementation of a suitable club coach development plan
- Gather playing and coaching information from the club to aid national research projects.

Ideally you'll need to be:

- A player or ex-player who can recognise good coaching skills
- Enthusiastic and persuasive
- A strong communicator
- Well-organised and resourceful
- Approachable, encouraging and good with people

What you'll get out of it:

This role directly influences success and the standard of rugby at all levels of the club. Recruiting the right coaches and seeing a team develop under them takes real skill and knowledge of the game.

How much time it will take up:

The role should take no more than a couple of hours per week.

Your club is run by volunteers. Our growth and development for the benefit of all our members can only be driven by the growth in volunteer numbers. Please consider if you have the skills, time and willingness to help.
