Suomenlinna Church
The Suomenlinna Church was built as a Russian Orthodox garrison church in 1854. As Finland took control of the island in the 1920s, it was converted into a Lutheran place of worship. A lighthouse, serving both air and sea traffic, still operates in the steeple.

Great Courtyard
Designed by the fortress’s founder Augustin Ehrensvärd, the Great Courtyard was completed in the 1760s and served as the main square. It was badly damaged in the Crimean War in 1855. The square contains an impressive memorial to Augustin Ehrensvärd, the architect of the Suomenlinna fortress.

Dry Dock
Suomenlinna’s dry dock is one of Europe’s oldest operational dry docks. In the 1760s, ships for the Swedish naval fleet were built here, under the supervision of naval architect F. H. af Chapman. Nowadays, the dry dock is used for renovating old sailing boats.

Kustaanmiekka
Kustaanmiekka is home to Suomenlinna’s original bastion and a late-19th-century Russian defence line, complete with sand embankments and artillery points. The Kustaanmiekka bastion area provides stunning seascapes all the way to the mainland.

King’s Gate
The monumental King’s Gate is the iconic symbol of Suomenlinna. It was built between 1753 and 1754 as a ceremonial gateway to the fortress. The gate was built on the site where a ship carrying the fortress’s founder, King Adolf Frederick of Sweden, was anchored while he inspected the construction of the fortress.
Welcome to Suomenlinna!

Situated on the islands off the coast of Helsinki, Suomenlinna is a cultural treasure. Its construction began in the mid-18th century, when Finland was still part of Sweden. Today, the fortress and its museums, restaurants and events are a memorable experience for visitors of all ages.

History

- 1748 Finland is part of the Kingdom of Sweden. Construction of the sea fortress begins, led by Augustin Ehrensvärd.
- 1750 Fredrick I of Sweden gives the fortress the name of Sveaborg.
- 1788 War breaks out between Russia and Sweden, and the fortress operates as a naval base.
- 1808 The Finnish War. The fortress is surrendered to the Russian army, and remains a Russian naval base for the next 110 years.
- 1809 Finland is made an autonomous part of the Russian Empire.
- 1855 The Crimean War. The Anglo-French fleet bombards the fortress, badly damaging it.
- 1818 The Finnish Civil War. A camp for prisoners of war is set up at the fortress. The fortress is annexed by Finland and named Suomenlinna.
- 1918 The Second World War begins. The fortress serves as a coastal artillery, anti-aircraft and submarine base.
- 1939 The Finnish garrison leaves the island.
- 1973 The Ministry of Education and Culture assumes responsibility for the island.
- 1991 Suomenlinna is added to UNESCO’s list of World Heritage Sites as an outstanding monument to military architecture.

THE SEA FORTRESS TODAY

The fortress is one of the most popular visitor attractions in Finland with about one million visitors every year. Suomenlinna hosts various services and events all year round. The fortress is also a neighbourhood with about 800 residents. The Governing Body of Suomenlinna, a government agency under the Ministry of Education and Culture, is responsible for the restoration, development and maintenance of the fortress as well as managing it as a visitor attraction.

The fortress is conserved and developed in accordance with the principles of sustainable tourism and the aim is to conserve it for future generations. Be sure to follow all instructions during your visit and help us preserve this World Heritage Site.

Suomenlinna was added to UNESCO’s list of World Heritage Sites in 1991 as a unique example of the military architecture of its era. Suomenlinna is a bastion fortress with an irregular shape and a unique history in serving the defence of three realms: Sweden, Russia and Finland.

BE CAREFUL

Many of the structures in the fortress are unfenced. Please note that all visitors accessing the fortress do so at their own risk. Exercise great caution at all times. Children must not be left unattended or allowed to climb the walls. Please note that even areas that seem safe may feature unexpected precipices. These may be disguised by vegetation in summer and snow in winter. When visiting the shoreline, please note that seafaring vessels may cause strong currents. In winter, the conditions may be slippery, so please take care.
