Products affected:

Remeo Gelato Stracciatella di Bergamo

Use by end of: 22/10/2019

Remeo Gelato has identified a labelling error affecting a number of the Remeo Stracciatella di Bergamo jars. The product labels (Stracciatella di Bergamo) do not match the product contents (Pistacchio Siciliano) (see photo jar n1) and therefore the product may contain the undeclared allergens: Nuts.

As a precautionary measure, Remeo Gelato are recalling Stracciatella di Bergamo jars with the affected date code (use by 22/10/2019) from customers. No other date code of any Remeo Gelato products are affected.

What you should do:

If you are allergic to nuts do not consume this product.
