The above batches of Cadbury Dairy Milk, Little Robins 93g have been found to contain Cadbury Dairy Milk Little Robins Daim Chocolate due to a packing error. This error may not be immediately obvious as the individual chocolate pieces within the bag are wrapped in a similar foil. Due to the presence of undeclared almond ingredients in these packs, Mondelez International is recalling the above-mentioned product.

If you are allergic or intolerant to Almonds, please check the outside of the bag for the above date code and either batch code numbers before opening the pack and do not consume the product. Instead please return the product to the store from which the product was purchased for a full refund, or contact our Mondelez consumer care line.

Only products carrying the the date code and either of the batch code numbers listed above are affected. We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience caused.

No other Cadbury products are affected.
