

Important Food safety warning

Product recall Little Willies from The Vegetarian Butcher

Due to a production error, the Little Willies of The Vegetarian Butcher may contain pieces of hard plastic. You are requested not to consume the following product:

- The Vegetarian Butcher, Little Willies,
All expiration dates between the 22- April and the 15th of May.

All Little willies with an expiration date after the 16 of May 2019 are fully safe for consumption.

Please be reassured that this quality issue applies to this batch only and does not affect the quality or safety of any other product from The Vegetarian Butcher. A thorough investigation is underway to ensure this does not happen again.

Consumers can send an email to info@thevegetarianbutcher.com with:

- o Topic: Little Willies
- o Picture of the consumer package with visible expiry date
- o Personal e-mail address*, on which consumers will receive instructions for reimbursement
- * all personal information will be used exclusively to resolve this particular product incident

You will receive an email from us with information we need to return the purchase amount.

In case you are unable to send an email, please send the empty plastic packaging, including cardboard sleeve, no later than 10 May 2019 to:

The Vegetarian Butcher
Antwoordnummer 10356
4800VB, Breda
The Netherlands

State your name, address, e-mail address and telephone number.
You will then receive your purchase amount in return.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us via the telephone number of the The Vegetarian Butcher on the Recall line: 0800 146 252.