GBGB IMPARTIALITY COMMITTEE BLOG: ENSURING TRACK LICENSING IS CONSISTENT AND OBJECTIVE

The GBGB Board are supported by a number of committees and sub-committees. One has a particularly important role when it comes to impartiality.

The Impartiality Committee helps to safeguard the fairness of GBGB's track licensing work and is a key requirement of our UKAS accreditation. To have UKAS accreditation means that we are recognised for upholding internationally agreed standards for our inspection and licensing processes – joining established and well-respected regulators across many sectors.

The key function of the Impartiality Committee is to oversee the work of GBGB's certification body – the team of staff responsible for certifying or in other words 'licensing', tracks for racing – and ensure that it is consistent and objective.

The committee can have up to five members including the Chair, who is also an independent director of the Greyhound Regulatory Board (GRB). What's crucial is that it is made up of those with relevant expertise and specialist skills but with no current direct links to tracks or licensed personnel.

Current members of the committee bring to bear decades of experience in animal welfare as well as in regulation. Peter Laurie is a former CEO of the Greyhound Trust and now the Interim Chief Executive at Battersea Dogs and Cats Home, whilst Dr Madeleine Campbell is a highly qualified veterinary surgeon who is a Professor of Veterinary Ethics at the University of Nottingham.

Alongside Peter and Madeleine sits Robert Quest and Chair Michael Elks. Robert brings a wealth of regulatory and licensing knowledge as the Assistant Director of the City of London Corporation Animal Health and Welfare Team. Likewise, Michael's background as a former solicitor and compliance officer helps the committee to ensure internal standards remain high.

The committee meets four times a year to receive updates from GBGB staff on track licensing activities and any other work which might impact impartiality. The committee is also in regular contact with a range of stakeholders so that it can answer any questions about GBGB licensing processes, take on board ongoing feedback and encourage regular communication between GBGB and stakeholder groups in this area.

In UKAS' recent report, assessors praised the work of the Impartiality Committee saying that the 'very detailed' minutes from their 2020 meetings 'clearly demonstrate that the impartiality committee is performing its designated functions.'

Michael Elks, Chair of GBGB's Impartiality Committee, said:

"Most people don't realise how important the role of our committee really is or get to see all of the work we do behind-the-scenes. As an independent grouping, we ensure that the GBGB certification body are undertaking the appropriate inspections and reviews and that there is a fair and stringent approval system in place for track licensing, carried out by a competent and fully-trained team of GBGB staff."

Welfare Hotline

If you are concerned about the welfare of any registered racing greyhounds, please call our confidential Welfare Hotline on 020 7822 0917. The line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

You will be prompted to leave a voicemail message giving as much information as you can so that our team can investigate your concerns fully and ensure appropriate action is taken.

The Disciplinary Committee wish to advise those appearing before them as "the affected person" that the Disciplinary Committee has the discretion to take account of any previous breaches of the rule(s) of racing which they consider are relevant to a case being heard before them irrespective of the date of commission of the breach.

DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE INQUIRIES

The Disciplinary Committee of the GBGB were in attendance at a meeting held on 16 March 2021:-

Mr K Salmon (in the chair)
Mr R O'Donovan
Mr H Starte

1 MR STUART WALTON

Background

On 21 August 2019 greyhound trainer Mr Stuart Walton (as he then was) was served with an improvement notice following a kennel inspection by Area Stipendiary Steward Lorraine Sams, which required Mr Walton to address the size of the kennel units in which his greyhounds were housed.

On 8 January 2020 Area Stipendiary Steward Tiffany Blackett, a qualified veterinary surgeon with 25 years' experience, carried out an unannounced visit to the kennels of Mr Stuart Walton to carry out a routine kennel inspection. No work had yet commenced pursuant to the improvement notice, but Mr Walton stated that he was going to enlarge the kennel units as per the notice.

Mr Walton's greyhounds were housed in two blocks. There were three greyhounds in the bottom block. Ms Blackett found that the duvets used as bedding were dirty and one kennel had only carpet as bedding. The general standard of cleanliness needed improvement and the block was quite dark.

The top block consisted of four kennels housing eight greyhounds. The units were quite dark even with the doors open. With the doors closed light and ventilation would have been further restricted.

There was a further unit housing one greyhound. This was said to be an "isolation unit." Ms Blackett observed dark and cramped conditions, with one bare breeze block wall. She concluded that this was not suitable accommodation for a greyhound and was certainly not suitable as an "isolation unit", which required non-porous and easily cleanable internal surfaces and adequate lighting, temperature control and ventilation.

The Disciplinary Committee (DC) noted that the defects in Mr Walton's kennelling arrangements might exacerbate health problems suffered by greyhounds in his care, for example inadequate bedding might render a greyhound with osteoarthritis less comfortable, even where they were not of themselves the cause of those health problems.

In the top unit Ms Blackett observed the retired greyhound BODELL EARL. She noted obvious saliva staining on either side of his mouth. This greyhound was markedly thin, with prominent pelvic and lumbar spinal bones and hind limb muscle atrophy. His teeth were in a very poor state and he was suffering from advanced dental disease. Ms Blackett observed a tick close to the greyhound's right ear. She advised Mr Walton to take BODELL EARL for a veterinary check-up within 24 hours. She further advised that he should obtain appropriate tick treatment from his vet. Mr Walton failed to obtain tick treatment and Ms Blackett had to repeat this advice on two subsequent occasions.

In another kennel in the top unit Ms Blackett observed a greyhound identified by Mr Walton as O'MALLEY STAR. This greyhound was lame on the left forelimb and suffering from advanced dental disease. Mr Walton stated that the greyhound was receiving no treatment for lameness.

The DC found that on the evidence both these greyhounds should have received veterinary care well before Ms Blackett's visit. The committee further noted that the failure to provide pain relief to greyhounds with evident orthopaedic problems (e.g. lameness, osteoarthritis) was a recurrent theme throughout Ms Blackett's subsequent visits.

On 9 January, the day after Ms Blackett's visit, Mr Walton informed her that he had taken three greyhounds BODELL EARL, O'MALLEY STAR, and ATTYKITT FIRE to see the track vet at Perry Barr stadium, Dr Michelle Tromans.

On 14 January 2020 Mr Walton's licence was suspended for 14 days for failing to maintain his kennels in accordance with rules 212 and 213 and for failing to seek veterinary advice for greyhounds in his care. That suspension was extended due to Mr Walton's failure to comply with GBGB requirements until the end of 2020, when his licence lapsed. He had made no application to renew his licence.

On 28 January Ms Blackett carried out a follow up visit and noted some improvement in the condition of the three greyhounds which Mr Walton had taken to the vet. However, she also noted that two further greyhounds BODELL SWIFT and MALLOG LUCKY were suffering from lameness. She advised Mr Walton to seek veterinary assistance for those greyhounds. He had failed to do so by the time of Ms Blackett's subsequent visits on 24 February and 5 June.

On 24 February Ms Blackett made a further visit to the kennels. She noted that O'MALLEY STAR now had a hygroma on one elbow and several areas of skin inflammation on her front feet. Mr Walton was advised to ensure that her bedding was kept dry, suitably deep and comfortable and to take her to a vet if her condition worsened. BODELL EARL was still visibly thin. Mr Walton was advised that his weight must not be allowed to fall and that he should be taken for a further weight check with the vet. Ticks were found on two greyhounds in Mr Walton's care. Mr Walton was advised for the third time to obtain a suitable tick treatment.

The next date of significance is 6 April when Mr Walton found O'MALLEY STAR dead in her bed. The DC were unable to make any finding as to the cause of death and although this greyhound's lameness and advanced dental care were caused and/or exacerbated by Mr Walton's failure to provide proper or adequate care there was no evidence before the committee that a lack of care caused or contributed to this greyhound's death.

Ms Blackett visited the kennels again on 5 June 2020. The improvement works had largely been completed. However, the kennel floors were wet, some floors needed cleaning, and deeper paper bedding was recommended. BODELL EARL and ATTYKITT FIRE both appeared to have lost weight.

On 24 July Dr Tromans visited Mr Walton's kennels, a veterinary report on the health status of Mr Walton's greyhound having been requested by the Senior Stipendiary Steward. It was apparent that ATTYKITT FIRE had been unwell again, and Mr Walton was advised to take him to a vet. Mr Walton telephoned Tiffany Blackett to say that this had been done on 27 July, and that the greyhound had lost further weight. Following this conversation and having read Dr Troman's report Ms Blackett contacted the Senior Stipendiary Steward to express her concern regarding ATTYKITT FIRE'S condition.

On 30 July Ms Blackett was instructed to attend Mr Walton's kennel to inform him that the GBGB was going to proceed with disciplinary action due to the lack of appropriate care for the retired greyhounds at his kennel. An appointment was made for 5 August 2020.

On 5 August it was apparent that ATTYKITT FIRE'S bodyweight had visibly deteriorated since Ms Blackett's visit on 5 June 2020. BODELL EARL was still very slim and his teeth were still in need of attention. A maxillary abscess was now developing on the left side of his face. A subsequent visual examination revealed that ATTYKITT FIRE had a skin ulcer on his right elbow, full skin thickness. Mr Walton was informed that his licence would remain suspended. He eventually agreed to allow the GBGB to remove the two greyhounds so that they could receive appropriate veterinary attention.

The greyhounds' treatment was then supervised by Karina Chapman MRCVS. Of particular note is the fact that by 29 September 2020 ATTYKITT FIRE'S weight had increased from 29.05 kgs on 7 August to 32.5kgs, a gain of 3.45kgs. Similarly, BODELL EARL'S weight had increased by 2.8kgs, to 28.2kgs on 5 October 2020.

Evidence

Dr Tromans gave evidence by telephone in which she confirmed her written evidence as to the condition of Mr Walton's greyhounds when she examined them. When questioned by Mr Walton she confirmed that the care of geriatric greyhounds can be difficult and frustrating. It can be very hard to keep their teeth in proper condition. However, she emphasised that the condition of Mr Walton's greyhounds was much poorer than she would have expected to see.

Ms Blackett gave oral evidence to the DC in which she confirmed the history as set out above. She stressed the deficiencies in Mr Walton's care, the consistent lack of proactive veterinary care, the fact that he had to be advised three times regarding tick treatment, his failure to give BODELL EARL pain relief notwithstanding that Mr Walton had been given a free supply of Metacam, and his failure to provide good nutrition suitable for his greyhounds' age and condition. She reminded the committee that dental disease would cause the greyhounds pain, could lead to weight loss, and can cause systemic disease. Likewise, osteoarthritis would cause pain. She stressed that the visible weight loss she had seen was indicative of long-standing problems and that the greyhounds would have suffered pain over a long period. She also emphasised the marked improvement in the greyhounds' condition observed after they had been removed from Mr Walton's care, which wholly undermined his assertion that he had done everything necessary for these greyhounds. She reminded the committee of Karina Chapman's conclusion set out in an email from Ms Chapman to herself that in light of the progressive improvement of both dogs Karina Chapman would be confident in stating that the poor condition on initial examination on 7 August 2020 was primarily related to malnutrition and failure to provide adequate care and husbandry, especially that required by their advanced age, resulting in unnecessary suffering. Their general condition could have been prevented with suitable food, bedding and necessary medications.

Mr Walton attended the inquiry by telephone. From time to time, he made some unhelpful interventions, for example making wholly unwarranted suggestions that the GBGB wanted rid of him because he was a small trainer, that Tiffany Blackett was not up to the job, and that Karina Chapman, who qualified in 2017, was "just a girl" who did not have the experience or ability to treat greyhounds.

He also gave somewhat contradictory evidence about his role in caring for his greyhounds saying on the one hand that his care was adequate and that he had done everything he could to ensure their wellbeing and on the other hand that because he had spent £3,600 on improvements to his kennel, he could not afford veterinary treatment.

Findings

The DC found Mr Walton in breach of rules 2, 152(i) and (ii), and 174(xi), and wholly rejected Mr Walton's assertion that his care and husbandry of the retired greyhounds in his care had been to a satisfactory standard. They found that he had caused prolonged unnecessary and avoidable suffering to greyhounds in his care over a period of several months by:

- His failure to seek necessary veterinary treatment for BODELL EARL, ATTYKITT FIRE and O'MALLEYS STAR prior to Ms

Blackett's visit on 8 January 2020.

- Failing to provide those greyhounds with adequate nutrition before 8 January and up to 5 August 2020.
- Allowing all three greyhounds to develop advanced dental disease and failing to seek appropriate and timely veterinary treatment, whereby the greyhounds would have been caused significant pain.
- Failing to obtain treatment/pain relief for O'MALLEYS STAR's lameness whereby that greyhound was left in avoidable and unnecessary pain.
- Ignoring the advice of Ms Blackett that the greyhounds • MALLOGS LUCKY and BODELL SWIFT needed immediate veterinary treatment for lameness with the consequence that those greyhounds were left untreated and in pain.
- Ignoring the advice of Ms Blackett regarding the need to obtain an effective tick remedy so that advice had to be repeated on three occasions, with the consequence that tick infestation was a recurrent problem in his kennels.
- Failing to provide BODELL EARL with treatment for pain notwithstanding that he had been provided with free Metacam.
- Failing to provide adequate accommodation and bedding such that the health problems suffered by greyhounds in his care were exacerbated.

Penalty

Mr Walton had been involved in greyhound racing for 47 years. There were no previous breaches of the GBGB rules of racing recorded against him. The DC considered this to be a very sad end to his career in the sport. They were unable to say whether he genuinely, but mistakenly, believed his care of these retired greyhounds to have been adequate, or whether he found himself overwhelmed by the circumstances in which he found himself.

Whatever the reasons for it, Mr Walton had caused unnecessary and avoidable suffering to the retired greyhounds in his care. The DC was satisfied that he had not done this intentionally, nonetheless his conduct had fallen very far short of that required by a greyhound trainer, whose first priority, like that of any person licenced by GBGB, must be the welfare of greyhounds.

The extent and duration of the suffering caused by Mr Walton was such that the least penalty the DC could impose was disqualification for an indefinite period.

2 MR TREVOR WALES

The Disciplinary Committee (DC) heard an application by Mr Trevor Wales that the indefinite disqualification imposed by the DC on 27 January 2012 of himself and his son Richard William Wales be revoked.

On 12 October 2011 Mr Wales and his son pleaded guilty to offences of money laundering and possession of criminal property relating to the transport and distribution of contraband cigarettes. Mr Wales was sentenced to 2 years and 3 months imprisonment and his son to 15 months.

Mr Wales is 64 years old and has been involved in greyhound racing all his life. He still breeds greyhounds and explained to the committee that he wants to be able to register and run greyhounds in his own name.

He works as a full-time carer for his disabled wife and has not been involved in any criminal activity since his release from prison in 2012.

He did not seek to play down or minimise the seriousness of the offences to which he pleaded guilty. He asserted that his part in the offence was limited to acting as a driver.

In all the circumstances the DC allowed his application and revoked the disqualifications in respect of both Mr Wales and his son. The committee took into account his guilty plea, the lapse of time since his release, the fact that he had not been in trouble since his release, the nature of the offence and his part in it, and the fact that there was no evidence of any link between the offences and greyhound racing.
