Oh Europa @ Greenwich Fair

Visit www.tfl.gov.uk to plan your journey to Cutty Sark DLR station

Oh Europa is taking place next to the Royal Observatory in Greenwich Park, which is approximately a fifteen minute uphill walk from Cutty Sark DLR station. Please note that we will be running a fully accessible shuttle service from the Old Royal Naval College to the activity site on Sunday 23 June from 11am to 7pm for anyone who aren’t able to travel this distance on foot. For those who are able, the route is as follows:

1. This is the Cutty Sark for Maritime Greenwich DLR Station lift exit. Turn right out of here.
Oh Europa @ Greenwich Fair

2. Head straight through the archway.

3. Go straight ahead across this road. Note that there is a slight curb at this crossing but it is not too high.
4. When you are near the end, cross the street safely so that you are on the same side as the Old Naval College Gatehouse.

5. Keep heading straight along this road, passing the bus stops.
Oh Europa @ Greenwich Fair

6. At the end of the road, turn left towards the pedestrian crossing, then cross over to the other side and turn right.

7. Take the next immediate left onto William Walk.

8. Continue along this road until you reach the entrance gates of the park.
9. The entrance gates are on either side of the road into the park and are approximately over a metre wide.

10. Follow along the pavement, which is at a slight incline.
Oh Europa @ Greenwich Fair

11. Once you pass the public toilets on your left, take the next left up the wide footpath.

12. Pass the Royal Observatory on your left and cross the car park.
Oh Europa @ Greenwich Fair

13. The installation location for Oh Europa is on the green space just on the other side of the car park. Enjoy the relaxing atmosphere as you listen to a rolling recording of European love songs, collected by the artist collective Action Hero.

14. If you have any questions, don’t hesitate to ask one of our friendly GDIF volunteers.