✨ Opening night

Booking information for Festival Members

We're optimistic that Festival 2021 will go ahead in its full format (above) but will wait until we have confirmation that this is possible before going on sale – which is why we're not able to share booking dates with you now. The booking process will be different too. Festival Members, instead of applying for tickets in a ballot, will be invited to book online or by phone during a priority booking window that's specific to their Membership level. Our Box Office opening hours will be extended into the evenings and weekends so there'll be someone on hand to assist you with this new process if needed.

A full performance schedule with timings and ticket prices, plus Festival 'Extras' including talks and study days, will be released as soon as we're confident that the season will go ahead as planned. Thank you for your understanding and flexibility as we navigate a return to the Festival as we know and love it.
