NEWS FROM THE HERD

The weather may have turned a little colder but here at The Horns its always warm - from the welcome to the food!

Want to be part of our Horns family?

From early February we'll be looking to recruit a Full Time Assistant Manager. This exciting new role will provide an opportunity to an eager, enthusiastic and committed individual who is 'looking to make there first steps on the management ladder, supported and coached by an experienced hospitality leader.

At this stage we are looking for expressions of interest and would love to have an informal chat with anyone out there, so ask at the bar for more information!

Charity Darts Day

We're holding a charity day to raise money for Brain Research UK, a charity aligned with Parkinson's, which is close to the Horns family's heart.

We're still finalising the final details for the throws, but its set to be a fab day for all, from bacon butties to kick things off, lunch and possibly a few beverages along the way.

Our aim is to raise a great amount for this wonderful charity, through entry fees and fines.....

Join us for the whole day or just pop in and throw an arror or two. Its a brilliant, fun day all for a good cause!

Get to know the team!

We'll be sharing little facts about the team that serves you. First up: fave drink and holiday destination. The results are in:

Kian - IPA and Morocco
Rich - Guinness and St Lucia
George - Jaeger bomb and Lake Como
Charlie - Spiced Rum & Coke and Crete
Ellen - Hugo Spritz and Morocco

What would you ask the team?
