PUB & DINING

NEWTOWN

ENGLISH CLASSICS & CARIBBEAN SOUL

*A Note from Karl,
Landlord*

I was born in London and have lived my whole life in England — it's home, and a place I love deeply. My dad was Jamaican, and growing up we were surrounded by the warmth, generosity, and incredible food of Caribbean cooking.

This menu is a small nod to that part of my heritage, which I'm proud to share. Tonight we bring together the best of both worlds — classic English pub dishes alongside vibrant Caribbean flavours — all served in the spirit of good food, good company, and a welcoming local pub.
