Introduction

What is the BFI Film Audience Network?

The BFI Film Audience Network \(or FAN\) was originally set up in 2012, using funds from the National Lottery, to support a stronger and more connected approach to growing audiences for British and international film on the big screen. It divided film exhibition activity in the UK into regions, each led by a regional Film Hub.

From 2017, FAN is part of the BFI's five-year plan BFI2022 and central to BFI2022's commitment to give everyone, everywhere in the UK the opportunity to enjoy and learn from the richest and most diverse range of great British and international filmmaking, past, present and future.

The priorities for FAN under BFI2022 are to:

- Increase access to a wide range of independent British and international film for audiences – especially those outside London;
- Extend engagement with BFI supported activities across the UK and enhance the quality and cultural depth of audience experience;
- Increase access to the UK's screen heritage especially via the BFI's National Film and TV Archive and those of the regions and nations;
- Enhance the quality of audience-facing activity, deepen knowledge and build capability in its membership, and;
- To do this with a particular emphasis on increasing the diversity of audiences and boosting the number of 16-30 year olds engaging with film activity.

What is Film Hub South East?

Film Hub South East is the Hub region for the South East of England. Geographically it has grown from the previous iteration of FAN and now covers the following local authority areas: Bedfordshire, Bracknell Forest, Brighton and Hove, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, East Sussex, Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent, Luton, Medway, Milton Keynes, Norfolk, Oxfordshire, Peterborough, Reading, Slough, Southend-on-Sea, Suffolk, Surrey, Thurrock, West Berkshire, West Sussex, Windsor and Maidenhead and Wokingham.

From 2018, Film Hub South East is managed by the Independent Cinema Office \(ICO\), the UK's national agency for the development and support of independent film exhibition.

What does Film Hub South East do?

Like all of the regional Film Hubs, Film Hub South East works on behalf of the BFI and in partnership with its members to deliver specific outcomes in its region against the priorities listed above.

Objectives of the scheme

We will be looking for applications that best demonstrate how the suggested training and professional development activity will impact the ability of cinemas and film festivals to best address the strategic priorities as below, with a specific focus on attracting younger and more diverse audiences:

- To ensure provision for specialised film in geographic areas which are currently underserved;
- To increase audiences for specialised film in all areas of the South East;
- To increase the number of venues in the region offering ambitious and diverse film programmes;
- To increase opportunities for audiences to engage in dialogue and discussion around film culture beyond the viewing experience, and;
- To build capacity in film skills to effect long-term change and sustainability in the region.

What support is available?

The total amount available in the Training and Professional Development Bursary scheme is £8,000, which is for activity that takes place in the period April 2019–March 2020.

Once this has all been allocated and the scheme has closed, this will be communicated to Film Hub South East members.

How much support can I request?

Bursaries are available of up to £750 (inclusive of VAT). Applications can be submitted for up to 90% of the costs of training course fees, travel and accommodation costs related to attending training, and other costs related to professional development. However, in most cases we would not expect to fund more than 70% of the cost.

If applicants are VAT registered, bursary claims should not include any VAT if it will be claimed back from HMRC. If applicants are not VAT registered, bursary claims can include VAT where necessary.

Organisations can receive a maximum of £750 from this fund in the period April 2019 to March 2020 so please be sure to discuss plans with your colleagues before applying.
