THE SUNDAY TIMES
FAST TRACK
Research administrator required

Fast Track is an independent research, publishing and networking events company, based in St Clements. We publish five high-profile annual league tables in The Sunday Times tracking Britain's top-performing private businesses, sponsored by blue-chips such as PwC, UBS and Virgin Atlantic. We also organise around 30 awards events and entrepreneurs' dinners a year.

Fast Track is now recruiting a full-time research administrator interested in entrepreneurial companies.

The research administrator would support the research team in identifying fast-growing private companies, by checking company accounts, databases and websites, by helping verify facts and figures, and by organising meetings. They would also conduct interviews on the telephone with chief executives, and write these up as concise summaries. Skills required include meticulous attention to detail, excellent administrative skills, good writing skills and a good telephone manner. Some familiarity with company accounts and an interest in fast-growth companies would be useful.
