OXFORD UNIVERSITY LIBRARY SERVICES
Theology Faculty Library
Temporary Part-time Library Assistant:
evenings and weekend work
(14 hours per week during term), initially until July 2004
Clerical and Library Grade 3:
£12,997 - £15,053 pa (pro rata)
We seek an enthusiastic and adaptable individual to work as part of a small team of staff providing services within the Theology Faculty Library. The Library is part of Oxford University Library Services and provides a popular lending collection to support taught courses in the Theology Faculty.
The post holder will staff the Faculty Library during the evenings and Saturday mornings: hours are 5pm to 7pm Monday to Friday and 9 am to 1pm on Saturday during term time. The post holder will be required to work on their own for a substantial part of their time and therefore a mature and responsible outlook is required.
Duties will include issuing and discharging books using the automated library system, providing support for users of self-service photocopying, answering basic enquiries and general bibliographic checking. Some shelving of books and journals will be required.
The applicant should have good communication skills and the ability to work with a wide range of users. Familiarity with, and experience of, electronic resources is desirable. A positive, open and flexible attitude is required as is a strong customer focus. Previous library experience is advantageous but not essential.
A letter of application with CV and contact details of two referees, setting out why you are interested in the post and listing relevant experience, should be sent to Kate Alderson-Smith, Theology Faculty Library, 41 St Giles, Oxford, OX1 3LW. Further details and a job description are available from the above address, or by telephoning: 01865 270731; fax: 270796; email library@theology.ox.ac.uk. Please apply ASAP. Interviews to be held on 29th September 2003. Please quote Our Ref. BL3073.
