Picker Institute Europe
Assistant Survey Researcher
 (Temporary 6 month post until July 2014)
 Picker Institute Europe is a healthcare charity specialising in obtaining feedback from patients and using this to improve the quality of health services. We organise patient surveys for hospitals, primary and community care, carry out research into patients' needs and preferences, run conferences, events and training courses, and manage the national advice centre for the NHS patient survey programme.
 This is an exciting opportunity to join a small, friendly team of researchers working closely with NHS organisations and others committed to patient-centred healthcare.
 We are currently recruiting for a temporary research assistant to work on our NHS patient surveys, as well as providing general administrative support across the Health Experiences and Survey teams. The successful applicant will collate and check survey data, respond to telephone enquiries and help with the administration of surveys, as well as providing on-going support for a number of other research projects. This is a varied and interesting post in a friendly office in Oxford. Microsoft Office skills are required, including proficiency in Excel, Word and PowerPoint. A methodical approach and attention to detail are essential.
 To apply for this role please email your CV and covering letter to jobs@pickereurope.ac.uk. Our website at www.pickereurope.org/vacancy-temporary-assistant-survey-researcher.html
 Closing date for applications is Friday 13th December 2013.
 For further information about the role, please contact Sharna Picken on 01865 208100.

FILM REVIEW
CARRIE
 Hit Girl misses the mark in this reboot of Stephen King's Carrie. Chloe Moretz was perfect casting for Kick-Ass's four-mouthed tween. But here she's too pretty, too normal to be credible as the outcast Carrie White, bullied to the point of telekinetic payback.
 Carrie, unwanted daughter of a religiously unhinged mother, is friendless, and knows more about the inside of the under-stairs cupboard than she does of the world. And when, in the unforgiving environment of a swimming pool locker-room, she experiences her first period, she thinks she's dying. Sugar and spice and all things nice are in short supply: her classmates ridicule her, filming her embarrassment for social media.

And when, in the unforgiving environment of a swimming pool locker-room, she experiences her first period, she thinks she's dying. Sugar and spice and all things nice are in short supply: her classmates ridicule her, filming her embarrassment for social media.
 Riven with shame, one of the girls bids for redemption, urging her hunky boyfriend to take Carrie to the prom. You just know it's going to
