

IBD Patient Involvement in Research Day
UCH Education Centre, 250 Euston Road, NW1 2PG
Friday 18th May 2018

PROGRAMME

09:30-10:00 Registration and welcome

10:00-10:45 Introductions and role of PPI in research

Ailsa Hart, Professor of Gastroenterology & NIHR Clinical Research Network PPI Lead
 Christine Norton, Professor of Nursing
 Nicola Fearnhead, President Elect, Association of Coloproctology of Great Britain & Ireland
 Azmina Verjee & Sue Blackwell, Patient Representatives

10:45-11:00 Coffee Break

First Session

	Fertility	Fatigue
11:00-12:00	Matt Brookes & Wladzia Czubor-Dochan: The lived experience of family planning of females patients diagnosed with Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) and their partners during key reproductive stages - a qualitative study.	Gordan Moran: Non-invasive approaches to identify the causes of fatigue in Inflammatory Bowel Disease patients. Christine Norton: IBD BOOST

12:00-13:00 Lunch Stands from IBD BOOST; IBD BioResource; PREdiCCt, BDRF and Crohn's & Colitis UK.

Second session

	Ulcerative Colitis	Crohn's Disease
13:00-13:30	Omar Faiz: CRUISE	Jack Satsangi: SPARE
13:30-14:00	Charlie Lees/Philip Jenkinson: PREdiCCt	Miranda Lomer: Development of a nutritional assessment and dietary management algorithm for patients with Inflammatory Bowel Disease.

14:00-14:30 Coffee break

14:30-15:00	Tariq Iqbal: STOP-COLITIS	James Lindsay: ASTIClite
15:00-15:30	Andrew Hart: Does excess dietary sulphur impair the response to drug treatments in patients with Ulcerative Colitis? A proof of concept study.	Sam Adegbola: Developing a quality of life score for Crohn's Anal Fistula.

15:30-16:00 Closing Remarks

#IBDPRD