Description

Located in a small cul-de-sac with views of Glastonbury Tor, this three bedroom linked detached house requires modernisation and is offered to the market with no onward chain.

The property enjoys a favourable layout; there is a dual aspect lounge and a kitchen/diner that is located at the rear of the property. A separate utility room providing access to the garden completes the ground floor layout. There are three bedrooms and a family bathroom on the first floor. The largest bedroom includes built in storage and enjoys views of Glastonbury Tor. There is ample space for parking and a single garage both of which located at the side of the house. The West facing rear garden includes a shed, pond and pedestrian side gate.
