66 Croft Street
GALASHIELS, BORDERS, TD1 3BP

66 CROFT STREET

The name, Galashiels, is derived from shiels or shielings which means dwellings and is usually preceded by a place or personal name, hence Galashiels, which means dwellings by the Gala Water. Although Galashiels is a small town, there are plenty of activities available to enjoy. A short walk away you will find Gala Water Retail Park, where occupiers include Marks and Spencer Simply Food, Next, New Look, Boots, Pets at Home and Clarks. The retail park sits adjacent to Tesco Extra and Asda.

For those who enjoy leisure activities, Tweedbank Sports Centre and The Borders Sport Leisure Centre will keep all members of the family entertained on a day out. Cyclists can join the ninety mile Tweed Cycle Way in Galashiels, while hikers can join the Southern Upland Way as it passes through.

Galashiels has a number of primary schools, a secondary school, Heriot Watt University and The Borders College.

You will find the Scottish Borders is easy to reach from every direction, with major routes from all directions touching its boundaries. Leave behind the motorways and ring roads and in little more than an hour by car from Edinburgh, Glasgow, Newcastle and Carlisle you will discover that driving is a pleasure again. Traffic free roads and quiet country lanes reveal new breathtaking vistas which change with the seasons, weather and light.

The Borders Railway line has a half hourly service at peak times over seven days of the week. The rail line runs from Tweedbank in the Scottish Borders to Midlothian, Edinburgh Waverley, connecting to the national and international rail network within an hour.

McEwan Fraser Legal are pleased to bring to market this two bedroom, period end-terrace house. The property has recently been decorated throughout and provides an ideal opportunity for any first time buyer or young family.

This impressive property is presented in freshly decorated neutral colours throughout and briefly comprises of an entrance hall with storage under stairway, spacious family lounge with electric feature fireplace, press and a fitted kitchen with a stand-alone electric hob and oven. The family bathroom can be also found on the ground floor.
