The Property

Beecham Close is a large and impressive five bedroom detached house, recently built by Redrow Homes to an excellent standard and specification, enjoying a very tucked away and private setting at the back of an established and well-designed development.

The property is built with attractive, reconstituted Cotswold stone style elevations and provides a well laid out and comfortable contemporary home.

Approached into a light and welcoming reception hall, there is an adjacent cloakroom and a large sitting room is dual aspect and has French doors to the enclosed garden. There is a bay windowed second reception room providing a dining room or a very large study that is also dual aspect and a particularly impressive feature to the house is the large kitchen/family room with space for a large table, this is a triple aspect room, has wide doors to the garden, has a well fitted kitchen with granite work surfaces, and has an underfloor heated limestone floor with tall oak skirting. There is also an adjacent utility room.

At first floor level there is a large open plan galleried landing that leads to all bedrooms; the master bedroom is ensuite and is a dual aspect room. There is a guest room that is also ensuite, three further well-proportioned bedrooms, and a family bathroom. The bathrooms are finished to an excellent contemporary standard and all have oak flooring.

Outside, the property is approached over a block paved driveway with an enclosed front garden to a stone wall plus a double detached garage and ample driveway parking for several vehicles. One of the garage doors is electric, and the enclosed garden enjoys a mature aspect onto trees and hedgerow and is part walled.

In addition the house has a gas central heating system supplying radiators and timber framed factory finished double glazed windows.

Amenities

Ideally located with the M4 and M5 easily accessible and the mainline train station at Kemble also within easy reach, the town of Cirencester dates back to Roman times when it was known as Corinium. Today, it is often referred to as the 'Capital of the Cotswolds' and is located on the edge of the Cotswold Water Park. The town owes a great deal of its stunning architecture to the wealthy wool traders whose buildings span the Middle Ages to the 18th century. Cirencester benefits from the convenience of the mainstream high street stores combined with numerous independent specialist retailers. There are also a number of delightful bistros, cafes, wine bars and pubs to suit all tastes.

There are excellent primary and secondary state schools and a sixth form college campus, whilst good independent schools are also within easy reach.

Cirencester has a leisure centre including a swimming pool and other sports are fully catered for including golf, tennis, riding, football, rugby and cricket.
