The Granary, Old Liverton, TQ12 6HS

A superbly presented and individual three bedroom mid terraced barn conversion situated in the highly sought after village of Liverton. This lovely home is in a tucked away location and boasts an abundance of character and many fine features including a wood burning stove, beamed ceilings, exposed stonework, flagstone flooring and stable door.

Situated within the picturesque Dartmoor National Park the property is close to the open moor yet is within approximately three miles drive of the A38 Devon Expressway. The local area of Liverton offers a well-regarded primary school, public house and post office and the area in general is a highly sought-after area to live in.

The Accommodation

A wooden stable-style door leads into the spacious living room which has flagstone flooring, beamed ceiling and exposed stonework to one wall. There is a wood burning stove with slate hearth and window enjoying a pleasant outlook. The kitchen/dining room has recently been refitted with a modern range of white shaker-style units with integrated oven, hob and dishwasher with spaces for fridge and washing machine. There is also a larder cupboard, beamed ceiling, flagstone flooring and stairs to the first floor. The spacious landing with exposed stonework to one wall and storage cupboard gives access to the three bedrooms. The master bedroom enjoys views over the surrounding countryside and woodland as does bedroom three. Bedroom two has a vaulted ceiling, skylight and wide window. There is also a modern bathroom with white suite.
