Scawen Road, Deptford

Directly facing the green open spaces of leafy Deptford Park, this beautifully positioned property is crying out for a family to make it their own. More recently used for the rental market, the property is now ready for a new chapter in its long history, while its position on one of SE8's most sought after streets should secure its future popularity for years to come. Internally the property enjoys the high ceilings and large bay windows you would expect of a property from the late Victorian period and there is scope to reinstate some of the period features and restore it to its former glory. The immediate area has enjoyed an increased popularity over recent years, being the largest, Victorian residential area near Surrey Quays station which remains largely intact.
