This gorgeous period home has it all, style charm and plenty of space. Arranged over three floors, the property offers flexible and versatile accommodation that measures approximately 1800 square feet.

The current owners have vastly improved the home during their ownership, so as well as looking great aesthetically, some of the more practical points have been covered within the last five years such as new wiring, a new heating system, some new windows and a new roof.

Further features include five double bedrooms (One is currently used as a study), a stunning kitchen diner that features high gloss units combined with quartz work surfaces, a luxury family bathroom, a cellar, a large and bright reception room and a well maintained rear garden measuring nearly 60ft.

Whitbread Road holds a popular location within easy reach of excellent transport such as Brockley Overground, Crofton Park rail station or Ladywell. The leafy surroundings of Hillyfields Park and Ladywell Fields can also be found close by.

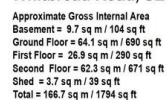

The local high street has plenty to offer including some great coffee shops, bars, restaurants and supermarkets. Sought after schools close by include Beecroft Garden & Gordonbrock.

Viewings highly recommended.
