- Five / Six Bedrooms
- Four Reception Rooms inc. 21' Drawing Room
- Wine Cellar, Boot Room & Utility Room

PROPERTY SUMMARY

Closewood House is a grade II quintessential period country residence, set within approx. 5.96 acres of landscaped gardens and private woodland. Beyond its elegant façade, the home offers 3,546 sq ft of versatile family living, blending timeless character with generous modern comfort. Inside, features abound with ceiling beams, open fireplaces, flagstone floors and bespoke book shelving all contribute to the home's warm, historic charm. A sweeping gravel driveway leads to the full width veranda and welcoming reception hall, from which the principal rooms unfold. These include a 21' drawing room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room, boot room, cloakroom and a utility/cellar room. Upstairs, the first floor offers five to six bedrooms, including a feature family bathroom and an additional shower room, providing ample accommodation for family and guests. An external home office (which is ideal for those wishing to work from home), a spacious versatile barn and a greenhouse further enhance the lifestyle appeal of this property. The manicured gardens create a tranquil sanctuary with rectangular lily pond, a stream, tennis court along with far reaching views across rolling lawns and towards the woodland beyond. Whether enjoyed for family life, entertaining or peaceful retreat, Closewood House is a rare blend of elegance, space and rural serenity, the village of Denmead is close by with a variety of shops, frequent train services from both Havant and Petersfield connect directly to London Waterloo and sought-after schools including Ditcham Park, Bedales and Churcher's College are within easy reach. Viewing is strongly recommended to appreciate both the accommodation and the setting.
