Visitor and Transit visa applications for Maritime Crew Visa holders

Lodging a visa application

The following information is for general guidance only. If you need further help with a visa application we recommend that you use a registered migration agent. More information on using a migration agent can be found online at:

There are three common visa options currently available to maritime crew wanting to participate in a crew change in Australia. Your individual circumstances will impact which visa is the best option for you.

- the Visitor (Subclass 600) visa using the Tourist Stream (https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/visitor-600), and

The best option for you will depend on how long you need to stay in Australia, and the country that issued you the passport that you are travelling on.

If you are flying in and you are certain that you will be able to join your vessel within five days of your arrival in Australia, a Transit (Subclass 771) visa may suit your needs.

If you need longer than five days in Australia (if you fly in) or 30 days (if you arrive by sea) and hold a Maritime Crew (Subclass 988) visa then you may want to apply for a Visitor visa to cover you stay.

You may apply for the Tourist Stream Visitor visa to meet quarantine or self-isolated requirements.

You can only apply for an eVisitor (Subclass 651) visa if you hold a passport from following countries:

- Austria
- Belgium
- Bulgaria
- Croatia
- Cyprus
- Czech Republic
- Denmark
- Estonia
- Finland
- France
- Germany
- Greece
- Hungary
- Iceland
- Ireland
- Italy
- Latvia
- Liechtenstein
- Lithuania
- Luxembourg
- Malta
- Monaco
- The Netherlands
- Norway
- Poland
- Portugal
- Romania
- Republic of San Marino
- Slovak Republic
- Slovenia
- Spain
- Sweden
- Switzerland
- United Kingdom – British Citizen
- Vatican City
Applicants for a Visitor (Subclass 600) visa do not need to hold a passport from the above countries. Once you have selected which visa is the best option for your individual circumstances, you will need to lodge an application as early as possible.

Below are examples of how you can lodge applications for a Transit or Visitor visa.

The Department of Home Affairs uses “dynamic” forms that ask more or less questions depending on the answers that you have already provided. As a result, the below screenshots are indicative only and may change depending on your individual responses.

Critical information

Important notice

Third travel restrictions are in place for certain countries due to COVID-19. You should not apply for any visa until checking the latest information.

If you are an immediate family member of either an Australian citizen or permanent resident, you may apply for a Visitor Visa (Subclass 651).

Australia welcomes visitors from around the world. The Visitor service is one of the quickest and simplest ways to apply for a tourism or business visit.

To ensure you enjoy your time in Australia please carefully read the information below which sets out who is eligible to use the Visitor service and explains the conditions that apply to Visitor holders during their stay.

Visitor conditions

The criteria for applying for a Visitor include:
- you must be outside of Australia to make the application;
- you must hold an Australian visa; and
- you must have a genuine intention to visit Australia temporarily for either:
  - tour or travel purpose, which is intended visiting family or friends; or
  - business purpose, which can include attending:
    - education or business meetings;
    - seminars;
    - conventions; or
    - conferences.

If you are granted a visitor the following conditions will apply to you:
- you must not engage in any studies or training for more than three months;
- you are free from tuberculosis when you travel to and enter Australia;
- you have no criminal convictions for which you have been sentenced for a total combined period of 12 months or more, whether or not the sentences were served.

You may be subject to further visa conditions depending on the purpose of your visit to Australia.

Your visa permits you to enter Australia as often as you wish within 12 months from the date the visa is granted and you may stay in Australia for up to three months each time you visit Australia.

Note: British Nationals Overseas (BNO), British Dependant Territories Citizen, British Overseas Citizen, British Protected Person and British Subjects passport holders are not eligible to apply for a Visitor.

How do you find out if you have been granted an Visitor?

The department will send you an email once a decision has been made on your visitor application. Therefore, it is important that you enter a correct email address into the application form.

Make sure that the email you use is still valid, that the storage capacity is not full and that your email spam folder is not cluttered with spam emails. You should check your junk email box on a regular basis to ensure messages from the department have not been incorrectly identified as spam.

Travelling with children who are included in your passport?

All travel visa must have their own visa or visitor to travel to Australia, even where there is not more than one person included on a passport. If you have children included on your passport, they cannot be included on your visitor application and are required to submit their own applications.

When you apply for a visa or visitor for children who are included on your passport, you will need to enter the passport details exactly as they appear on your own passport, replacing the name, date of birth, sex and quality of birth with your child’s details as they appear on your passport.

Completing the application form

For helpful information when completing the Visitor application form, click on the tips icon for a detailed explanation of what the question is asking you.

You can save your application at any time by clicking on the Save button at the bottom of the screen and then entering a password of your choice. You should record the Saved Application ID and your password so you can retrieve your partially completed application in the future.

Carefully consider all of the above information before you continue with this visitor application.
