

What did Paddington do when he went to London?

Buckingham Palace

Year 1
Summer 1 Term

What should I already know?
-That I live in Hedon and what the characteristics of Hedon are.

The London Eye

The London Underground

The Shard

The Tower of London

The Houses of Parliament

Flat Stanley

The River Thames

National Curriculum objectives:

- To use geographical vocabulary to refer to key human features.
- To use geographical vocabulary to refer to key physical features.
- To name the capitals of the UK

Knowledge:

- London is the capital city of the UK but Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales also have their own capital cities.
- To identify and name all key landmarks.
- To understand the importance of the River Thames to trade, tourism and industry.
- London has an underground railway system
- London is the centre of government in the UK.
- London has lots of parks and green spaces.
- The city of London has been there for hundreds of years and has changed a lot during that time.

Key vocabulary:

Capital city-the most important city in a country usually where the government meets/Queen lives.

Queen-the ruling monarch of our country

Parliament/Government-a group of elected men and women who run our country and make laws.

London landmarks(Big Ben, The London Eye, Houses of Parliament, Tower of London, Trafalgar Square, The Shard, The Underground, Buckingham Palace, Tower Bridge)

The River Thames the river which flows through London

Human geography-things built by people

Physical geography-natural things

The Crown Jewels-a collection of crowns and other precious objects kept in The Tower of London

Geographical skills and enquiry:

- Identify different parts of the United Kingdom and understand the key human and physical features (river Thames, Big Ben)
- Understand the similarities and differences between cities, towns and villages across the UK.
- Discover and explore the countries capitals and seas of the UK

Our town-a small market town with some facilities and a town council

London is the capital and most important city of the UK and set of government.

London has lots of very important buildings and attracts thousands of tourists from all over the world-it is a very interesting place to visit.

What is the capital of the UK?	Start of unit:	End of unit:
London
Birmingham
Hull

The Queen lives in London	Start of unit:	End of unit:
True
False

You can travel around London by underground train	Start of unit:	End of unit:
True
False

Trafalgar Square has statues of which animals?	Start of unit:	End of unit:
Dogs
Lions
Horses

Where are the Crown Jewels kept?	Start of unit:	End of unit:
Buckingham Palace
The Houses of Parliament
The Tower of London

What is the difference between a human feature and a physical feature?
Start of unit:	End of unit:
Why is The River Thames important to London?
Start of unit:	End of unit: