Whats important to Mrs Phillips

- My working environment needs to be bright, warm and welcoming. My team need to be friendly, supportive, approachable and hard working.
- I like to build good relationships with people and work in a friendly and caring atmosphere.
- It is important to me that I am successful at what I am doing and that it is recognised by others.
- To have a good work life balance so that I have time to spend with friends and family as well as do my job well.
- To have positive people around me with a 'can do' approach to problem solving.
- To meet face to face with team members regularly as well as through email.
- To do my job well and know that I make a difference; I always want to work to the best of my ability
- To have an understanding of the 'big picture' and where I fit in.
- To work in a collaborative way with discussion to bounce ideas off others and move my own thinking forward.

How to support Mrs Phillips

- People are open and honest with me in a respectful way; this supports me to do my job well.
- I am involved in the decision making processes.
- I have good relationships with the whole team and time is prioritised to discuss and develop ideas with them.
- Approach me with a 'can do' attitude to problem solving.
- Provide me with adequate training and support that is specific to me.
- Give me time to complete tasks, time to spend with the children to enrich their education and time to share ideas with fellow teachers.
- Give me clear expectations and regular communication from my manager and tell me when I am doing a good job.
- Avoid confrontation with me—I am happy to be told if I am doing something wrong but it's the way that I am told!
