

Passport Maths Examples North America 2

Alaska

I can read Roman numerals from I to M	(1-10) I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X (50, 100, 500, 1000) L, C, D, M
I know decimal number bonds for 1 to two decimal places	e.g. $0.83 + 0.17 = 1$
I can double any 2 digit number	Double 36 = 72 Double 72 = 144
I can halve any 2 digit number	Half of 96 = 48 Half of 71 = 35.5

Mexico

I can recognise and name 2-D shapes by number of sides	Triangle, quadrilateral, pentagon, hexagon, heptagon, octagon, nonagon, decagon
I can recognise names of 3-D shapes	Cone, Cuboid, Cube, Square-based pyramid, tetrahedron
I can recognise and describe different quadrilaterals	trapezium, parallelogram, rhombus, square, rectangle, kite
I can recognise and describe different types of triangle	Scalene, isosceles, right angle, equilateral
I can find the perimeter of a rectangular shape	$a + a + b + b = \text{perimeter}$ $\text{Double } a + \text{double } b = \text{perimeter}$
I can calculate the areas of rectangular shapes	$\text{Length} \times \text{Width} = \text{Area}$ 