

British Values at Manor Fields Primary School

September 2015

The DfE have reinforced the need "to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs."

At Manor Fields, we uphold and teach pupils about British Values through Personal, Social, Health and Emotional (PSHE), and Religious Education (RE). Our equality objective is embedded in our School Development Plan, and our curriculum plans, particularly in our commitment to:

- increasing understanding of religious/faith diversity, including people who do not have a faith and
- developing an awareness of the history of religious intolerance in Britain and Europe and to learn to promote tolerance and understanding.

We will actively challenge pupils, staff or parents expressing opinions contrary to fundamental British Values, including 'extremist' views. At Manor Fields, British Values are reinforced in the following ways:

