

St Mary's RC Primary School Homework Grid

Topic: Frozen Planet

Year Group: 1

Term: Autumn 1

Areas of Study	Thinking Levels
	Knowing 1 point	Understanding 2 points	Applying 3 points	Analysing 4 points
Language and Communication Speaking, listening, literacy, English and other languages	Visit your local library to find fiction and non-fiction books about 'The Arctic of The Antarctic '. Which is your favourite type of book and why?	Learn some 'frozen planet' spellings:- snow, ice, frost, igloo, penguin, polar bear, seal, whale, iceberg, snowflake.	Think about a day in the arctic or Antarctic. Write about what you could see, hear, smell and taste.
Health & Wellbeing Physical activity, food, Personal/ Social/Emotional development		Think about your favourite flavour of ice cream. Draw and label an ice cream cornet of your own. Choose your flavours, colours etc. You could even create a new flavour!
Humanities and Citizenship History, Geography, RE, Cultural, visits	Find out which animals live at the Arctic and the Antarctic.		Write at least six facts about penguins and 6 facts about polar bears.	Find out who Scott of the Antarctic was and what he did.
Science and Technology Science, DT, Eco issues				What is the best type of material to keep warm in the Arctic or the Antarctic.
Creative Arts Art, Design, Drama, Music, Dance			Create a frozen planet picture of your own. Can you label some of the features in your picture?
Maths & Problem Solving Maths Thinking Skills, Logic, Problem solving	Practice your number bonds to 10. i.e 0+10=10 1+9=10 2+8=10	Practice counting in 10's from 0 to 100

Homework to be brought in every fortnight with your name and the title of the activity on it .Try to achieve 20 points by the end of the topic with high quality work. One task must be completed on each row and one from each column.