

Keighley Postcards is a project that is run by Small World.

Small World is an arts project in Keighley that provides a range of creative activities primarily for young people. They work with schools, youth groups and community groups to ensure access where it is most needed.

A couple of Parents and children from Laycock have been involved in creating paintings with images of Laycock village and the school grounds.

Lots of community groups and some schools have taken part in the project and over 100 paintings will be on display in and around Keighley in the New Year.

Images from Parents and children at Laycock

