Strive, Believe, Succeed...with 'Humility'

'Headlines' ...

We would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year and welcome you to our new style newsletter. Congratulations to Simon James, Steve Dangerfield, Kate Ellis and Tracey Hammond who came up with the name; 'Benger Bulletin'. A prize for the new title will be on its way to you all!

The heading for our newsletter includes our new school motto which will be developing with the children. This motto includes our school value for this term, which is Humility. The full text for our school motto is "At Sutton Benger School we strive to do our best, believe in the values of God and succeed together"

This newsletter will be published on a fortnightly basis on a Wednesday – although this first copy will be on a Friday. It will contain the names of the children who have been mentioned at the Celebration Assembly on a Friday, achievements and activities that the children have been involved with as well as learning updates and reminders.

We would also like to hear your ideas about items for inclusion in the Benger Bulletin so please contact the office with any suggestions.

School News

On Tuesday 10th January Faith and Hope class had an amazing Anglo-Saxon theme day! 'Alfred the Great' visited our school to share stories and artefacts from this period in history. The children loved experiencing first-hand life in Anglo-Saxon times, especially being drilled as Anglo-Saxon warriors in a shield wall and re-enacting part of the story of Beowulf. In the afternoon, Hope class focused on designing Anglo-Saxon clothing, whilst Faith class made some Anglo-Saxon bread, which was surprisingly delicious! All in all, a fantastic and inspirational day was had by all.

Could parents please ensure that younger siblings go to the toilet before collecting older children from school. We have had an increase in parents with small children asking to use the school toilets and this presents a safeguarding issue.
