

FAIRFIELD WEEKLY NEWS

Wednesday 8th March 2017

Easter Bingo Tickets on Sale.

Name of child _____

Thank You

Enormous amounts of my time this week has been spent dealing with newspapers and radio stations over the request that JoJo bows are not worn in school. I am immensely grateful to you as parents that whatever your views, you have trusted that our uniform code is aimed at doing the best for our children - at work, at play and in not having to worry that they might not have £10 or more to spend on their hair. IT IS NOT TRUE THAT I WAS JEALOUS OF PEOPLE WITH ANY HAIR!!

World Book Day

Our celebration of this event takes place next week when the book fair arrives in school. All of the children will have their chance to read or tell their favourite story to a younger child on Friday 17th March. Some children have asked if they can write their own. These will be put into a special book.

As the story telling will be on our Easter Bingo non-uniform day children are welcome to come dressed as their favourite character from literature - IT IS UP TO YOU!!

Easter Bingo Thursday 23/3/17

Tickets for Easter Bingo are now on sale - £3.50 for adults and £2.50 for children (Y1 upwards). To support this event, it will be non-uniform or favourite book character day on Friday 17th March in return for Easter Eggs. Your ticket includes our ever popular pie and peas supper as well as a free game for adults or a 1 egg tombola for children. To avoid disappointment please book your tickets using the forms available in reception today!

Self Care for All Wednesday 22/3/17

FirstPoint Family Support Services (formerly known as Bury Parent's Forum) is holding an event about what is on offer in your local community for parents and children. For more information, see our website on the Newsletter section.
