

FAIRFIELD WEEKLY NEWS

Wednesday 15th March 2017

Easter Bingo Tickets on Sale.

Name of child _____

Our World Book Day celebrations start this week. The Book Fair will be open between 8.30am - 8.55am and 3pm - 3.30pm starting from tomorrow. On Friday children will be sharing stories with children from other classes and as part of non-uniform day can come dressed as a character from the world of literature.

A sheet "My favourite book character and why" will be available and children who fill it in can read it at our Family Assembly at 2.15pm

Easter Bingo Thursday 23/3/17

Tickets for Easter Bingo are now on sale - £3.50 for adults and £2.50 for children (Y1 upwards). To support this event, it will be non-uniform or Favourite Book Character day on Friday 17th March in return for Easter Eggs. Your ticket includes our ever popular pie and peas supper as well as a free game for adults or a 1 egg tombola for children. To avoid disappointment please book your tickets using the forms available in reception today! Any tickets already ordered will be sent home this week.

Choir

The Choir performed in the Children of Bury Sing Concert on Saturday. They were magnificent. Thank you to the adults who helped them to reach such high standards and to parents who supported the early rehearsal times. Well done to the children. We are the ones in the smart shirt and ties.

Red Nose Day

Noses are now on sale (£1).
